

The Kazhak CADET
THE JOURNAL OF SAINIK SCHOOL KAZHAKOOTAM

ESTD: 1962

2016-17

O God, help us to keep ourselves physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight, that in doing our duty to Thee and our country we may keep the honour of the School untarnished. Strengthen us to guard our country from external aggression and internal disorders. Awaken our admiration for honest dealing and clean thinking, and guide us to choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong.

Kindle our hearts with fellowship for our comrades and respect for our teachers and elders. Endow us with the courage which is born of the love of what is noble and which knows no compromise or retreat when truth and right are in peril. Grant us new opportunities of service to Thee, to our country and to our comrades, and ever help us to place such service before all.

Surprise Location: Sainik School Kazhakooram was established on 30 Jan 1962 in the solitary barracks of Pongudi, Thiruvananthapuram. The Chief Minister of Kerala, Late P. V. Varma chose the location for the school 18 kms away from Thiruvananthapuram in NH-47 near Kazhakooram. The sprawling campus of 225 acres, called barracks, the slender frame of the Writers Class and the Arakali Sea, situated on a hillside situated with vegetation, is an ideal location for a military based residential institution. The foundation stone of Sainik School, Kazhakooram was laid by Late VK Krishna Menon, Minister of Defence, Govt of India on 05 Feb. 1962. The founder Principal was Lt Col BK Suresh, Headmaster Sqn Ldr Balu Lal and the Registrar was Capt TVS Nair. During the 52 years of its existence, the school has been providing genuine service as a feeder institution to NDA and INA and also making public school education accessible to the common man.

Pinarayi Vijayan
Chief Minister, Kerala

I convey my warm greetings and felicitations to the Kazhak fraternity on the occasion of the publication of the latest edition of your School Journal.

Sainik School Kazhakootam, the only such institution in the State has consistently lived upto exalting standards. The vision and the commitment of the school is appreciable and worth emulating. The martyrdom of great leaders such as Col NJ Nair AC RC, Maj Saish Chandran SM, Lt RM Naresh and Capt Harshan AC, who were products of the school, will always remain as a matter of pride. Surely this unique and prestigious portal of learning is a feather in the cap of the State of Kerala.

Once again, I congratulate the Kazhak fraternity.

I am extremely glad to know that Sainik School Kazhakootam is bringing out its Annual Journal – 'THE KAZHAK CADET – 2017' shortly.

Sainik Schools were founded in the country with the aim of grooming the youth to take up a profession in the Armed Forces. I am particularly happy to note that over the years, Sainik School Kazhakootam has lived upto this expectation while fulfilling its objectives in an exemplary manner. The large number of its alumni serving in the Defence Forces of India, quite a few very well known to me, stand as an apt testimony to the School's commitment towards this noble cause. I am confident that the Nation and the three services are proud of such a fine institution and its worthy alumni.

I convey my good wishes to all Officers, members of faculty and cadets of the school and wish them success in all their endeavours.

God bless ! Jai Hind !

I am extremely happy to note that Sainik School Kazhakoottam is bringing out their Annual Journal 'THE KAZHAR CADET-2017'. In today's competitive world, education cannot be restricted to academics alone. It must have an equal footing on co-curricular and extracurricular activities. This inspires the students to become confident and successful in tackling the challenges of the dynamic world.

I am glad that in this regard, Sainik School Kazhakoottam provides unmissable opportunities to the students like the house activities, club activities, sports and Olympiads for Science/Mathematics that not only cater to develop their literary acumen but also promotes character building. The achievements of the school in these areas are praiseworthy.

I wish the students and staff members especially the editorial team all success in their future endeavors.

Jai Hind!

From the Principal's Desk

"Today's world not only needs high achievers, it desperately needs good human beings with humane virtues."

I very firmly believe that in today's India, there's a huge deficit of good citizens and I very firmly believe in utilising the opportunity offered to me to make up at least a portion of this loss. Upon taking over the reins of my Alma Mater in Apr 2013, I had placed a board near the main gate declaring "Give us your child, take back a gentleman". I mean every single word therein. Recently I came across a post where it was mentioned that during a competition among special children, while the one who was leading the race fell on the track, others chose not to surpass, but gather around him and pick him up at the cost of not winning the competition. No wonder then, that it is believed that such children are mirror images of God Himself. Our innate nature of goodness seems to have been overshadowed by the need to achieve and conquer.

Col A Rajiv
Principal

If we, as a society, are unable to bring back the inherent goodness in our children, the future, to me, appear hopeless. More than preparing them for specific walks in life, I believe, we must nurture and groom them to be useful citizens first, caring for his fellow beings and compassion are to mother earth. Then we must prepare our children to be life smart, not just speech or street smart. Once these have been achieved, then and only then should they be placed in the mould of specific professions. There's a treasure chest in every child's heart, filled with compassion, care and love. As educators and care givers, we must take extra effort to keep this treasure unharmed to whatever possible extent. I'm reminded of what our dear and most revered Dr APJ Abdul Kalam once said,

"The seeds of peace in the world have their origin in the righteousness in the hearts of every individual. Such righteous citizens lead to the evolution of an enlightened society. Education with a value system has to be so designed that righteousness in the hearts is developed in young minds. That should be the mission of education."

I exhort my fellow stakeholders in this mission to rise up to the requirements being dictated by the present circumstances to be able to produce gentlemen of whom we can be proud of.
Jai Hind.

Principal's Annual Report

2016/2017

Honourable Chief Guest of the evening Shri S Anandakrishnan, IPS, distinguished guests, esteemed parents, members of staff and my dear cadets, Good evening and a warm welcome to one and all.

The chief guest has been adequately introduced to our audience by our Admin Officer and so I do not wish to duplicate the same. Suffice to say, we are indeed fortunate and honoured to have such an illustrious officer like your goodself as the Chief Guest for the 55th Annual Day 2016 being celebrated in connection with the 56th Raising Day. Sir, I am sure that your benign presence on this occasion will be a great source of motivation for all of us.

On this befitting occasion I shall now present before you the wide spectrum of activities and events carried out in the School during the current academic session 2016-17.

Sainik School Kothakootam is one of the 25 Sainik Schools in the country, which was established in 1962. It has come a long way since its inception in making a significant mark as an educational institution of high repute aimed at overall development of students with a military bias in our beloved state of Kerala.

Apart from our basic aim of preparing the boys for entry into the National Defence Academy/ Naval Academy and the OTA, the training imparted in this school shapes the students socially and create in them a know how to approach life meaningfully in order to emerge as responsible citizens of India and leaders in different walks of life.

As presented during the Welcome Function of the Annual Day 17

At The 6th edition of Col Nj Nair AC, RC Memorial Inter School Quiz Competition 17

New Admissions: After the All India Sainik Schools Entrance Examination, and selection procedure thereafter, 129 cadets were admitted to the school in the beginning of the current session, 113 in Class VI and 16 in Class IX. The present school strength is 666 including 629 Boarders and 37 Day Scholars.

A Fresher's party was organised for the new entrants on 10th Jun 16.

A significant point in this regard is the entry of tribal children from the most backward areas of Anappadi, making it to the folds of this 'people's public school'. Thus, for the first time, the ST quota is getting fully subscribed by the most deserving.

In-service Training for Sainik School Teachers: An In-service training programme/ Teachers Workshop for teachers was conducted at Sainik School Bijapur, Karnataka from 02 to 07 May 2016. Four teachers, Mr Alex Abraham, Asst Master English, Mr Arun Kumar MS, Master Chemistry, Mr Jesmine RJ, Asst Master Social Science and Mr Macdon M, Asst Master Mathematics attended and successfully completed the workshop programme.

Academics: Despite a very busy schedule of various regular co-curricular and extracurricular activities, academics continue to be one of our prime concerns. As in the past, this year too our academic achievements have been good with 100% pass in Classes X and class XII CBSE Board Exam held in March 2015. Of the 113 cadets who appeared in class X, 28 cadets secured 10 CGPA, 48 cadets secured CGPA above 9, 30 cadets secured CGPA above 8 and the remaining 07 cadets secured CGPA above 7.4. Merit certificates were awarded to 28 cadets by CBSE for securing A1 for all subjects. The overall CGPA was 9.19.

In class XII, the school scripted history by becoming the topper among all Sainik Schools. This year all 69 cadets who appeared, obtained first class with 62.6% being the lowest score, 67% of students scored distinction and 13% secured above 90%. This year's school toppers were Cdr Joel Shoen RS and Cdr G Harishankar, who secured 92%.

I wish to acknowledge the excellent work done by the erstwhile Vice Principal, Cdr Gireesh Gopidas, Senior Master Mr. R Rajendran and his team of teachers in bringing up the results to this exciting standards and at the same time exhort the new Vice Principal, Lt Cdr Parichay Khara to continue the efforts. Sir, you will appreciate it more when we convey to you that this result is a product of pure classroom education and not based on extra tuitions.

National Defence Academy: Our first batch of students joined NDA in 1965 and till date, about 10000 alumni have been awarded President's Commissions in the Armed Forces or is close to attaining the same. Some of them have been conferred gallantry awards for the services and sacrifices rendered to the nation. Regular NDA preparatory classes are arranged for the boys to prepare them for the UPSC written examination.

69 Cadets appeared in the UPSC Exam for 136 & 137 NDA Courses, 21 cadets qualified the exam and 07 cadets qualified SSB out of which all 06 cadets joined NDA/ Naval Academy.

Presentations / Talks: A Talk cum Presentation on the subject 'Career Prospects in Indian Navy and Merchant Navy' was conducted by Cmde R Nathan (resd) on 24 Oct 2016 at 1300 h.

A series of lectures on career options were given as part of Project Tom George Series by the 91 Batch alumni.

Dr Paol Marikar delivered a talk cum presentation on the subject 'Life Style Diseases and youth' on 11 Jun 16. This programme was organised by one of our old boy (Roll No: 827/ 77 batch) Prof (Dr) AR Shariel, an agriculture scientist and Secretary, Association of British Scholar (ABS) Trivandrum Chapter.

As part of the nation wide publicity drive to encourage the youth of the country to join the IAF, a publicity exhibition was organised by the IAF on 25 Nov 16. A flight simulator vehicle was brought to the school and was an on hand cockpit experience for our cadets.

Under the aegis of Health Dept, Govt of Kerala, Community Health Centre Pathenhope conducted a medical awareness lecture cum medical camp on skin disease at the school for the staff members who are closely associated with the students.

Flag hoisting ceremony of Tiranga Yathra by the Hon'ble Governor of Kerala (Joshi) P. Sadasivam

Annual Medical Checkup: To reduce medical rejection cases in the selection procedure of SSB, a mandatory Ophthalmic & ENT check up of class VII & X was conducted on 11 Jan 2017.

Col NJ Nair AC RC Memorial Quiz: The 6th edition of Col NJ Nair AC, RC Memorial Inter School Quiz Competition was held in this very auditorium on 28 Oct 16. More than 10 leading schools participated in this prestigious competition in which our school secured the runners up trophy whereas Arya Central School Thiruvananthapuram emerged as winners. Mr Prem C Nair, former teacher of SSKZM and a leading language trainer of Technopark graced the occasion as chief guest and gave away the prizes to the winners.

Tiranga Yathra: To commemorate the 70th Independence day and the valiant soldiers protecting us at the border, a Tiranga yathra was organised in collaboration with LNCPE. A grand function was organised in the school campus to flag off the Tiranga Yathra. The yathra was flagged off by non other than the Hon'ble Governor of Kerala Justice (Resd) P Sadasivam on 23 Aug 16. The yathra was led by Arjuna Awardees Diju and RC Laksh.

Book Release: A biography on the life of Roll No. 1122 (Last) Pige Officer MP Anil Kumar written by Air Cmde Nalin Sahu, AOC, IAFSB was released in a grand function organised in the school, under the aegis of Southern Air Command Alandam on 08 Nov 16. Air Marshal S Neelakantan, YSM, VM, AOC-in-C & Chairman IJA SSKZM graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and released the book in South India.

Sports and Games: Facilities for playing almost all major games (Football, Hockey, Volleyball, Tennis, Basketball, Cricket and Badminton) and option to participate in athletic track and field events as well as firing exist in the School campus. Besides these, the Cadets take up indoor games like Table Tennis, Chess and Caroms. Participation in the games for all the boys is compulsory and one hour in the evening in the daily routine has been earmarked for this purpose. The School has a modern swimming pool of Olympic Standard and all the curriculum has the facility of a programmed Swimming Class for each cadet from VII to XII. One class per year is identified to be provided with extensive coaching in swimming. We have extended to class VIII C this year and cadets are also exposed to multifarious hobby activities incl Karate and Yoga.

South Zone Sports and Cultural Meet: The South Zone Sainik Schools Games Meet 2016 was conducted at Sainik School Kozhikoodam from 20 Jul 16 to 25 Jul 16 for a consecutive second time. 350 cadets from south zone schools participated in the Sports & cultural Meet. Air Vice Marshal G Amar Prasad Babu, VM, SCA, SAC Alkulam declared the meet open.

Our School emerged as the overall champions with 15 points winning, Basketball, Junior Football and Literary events (Debate & Quiz championships). Hon'ble Education Minister, Prof C Ravindranath graced the occasion of closing ceremony as the chief guest and gave away the prizes to winners.

A team of 16 cadets from school Junior Football team participated in Inter Zonal Football championship for juniors held from 03 to 06 Aug 2016 at Sainik School Rewa, MP. A team of 12 cadets of school Basketball team participated All India Sainik School Inter Basketball championship held from 03 to 06 Oct 2016 at Sainik School Bijapur.

Capt Harshan, AC Memorial Basket Ball Tournament: The eighth edition of the Capt R Harshan, Ashok Chakra Memorial All Kerala Inter School Basketball tournament sponsored by Old Boys Association (OBA) of the school concluded at Sainik School Kozhikoodam at 1530 h on 21 Oct 16. Ten teams from various schools participated. Air Cmde RSR Suresh Kumar, VM, Air 1, Southern Air Command, a proud alumnus of the school who passed out in 1983 graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and gave away the trophies and medals to the winners. Our school bagged the runners up trophy as St Joseph

School lifted the winner's trophy.

Annual Athletic Meet: We conducted our 55th annual Athletic Meet from 16 Nov 2016 to 19 Nov 2016. The meet commenced with an opening ceremony and concluded with a grand Closing Ceremony on 19 Nov 2016. Adv VR Prasanna, Hon'ble Mayor, Thiruvananthapuram City graced the occasion as Chief Guest.

Annual Aquatic Championship: 3rd Annual Aquatic Championship was held from 21 Aug to 01 Sep 2016 at the Somaiah Aquatic Complex. Shri SH Sharma, Former Senior Master, this school graced the occasion as chief guest and gave away the prizes to the winners.

Passing Out Parade: The Passing out Parade of the class XII cadets was held on 10 Dec 2016 at the School Parade Ground. This year 70 cadets passed out from this school. Air Marshal S Neelakantan YSM, VM, AOC-in-C Southern Air Command, reviewed the parade in which the School Cadet Captain Jeevan AC commanded the parade. The Reviewing Officer complimented the cadets for their immaculate turn out and excellent standard of parade. It is so our credit that there was a rare, full two page feature about the Passing out parade in the Sainik smachar of Dec 2013.

|| Lt Col Parthiv Katta, Vice Principal receiving the 'Kerala Madrasa Parakaram 2017' for School Magazine 'The Kadhak Cade' which was adjudged the best in the School and College Magazine category ||

Kadhak Expo: Kadhak Expo for the year 2016-17 was held on 11 Dec 16 at the school academic block. The first lady of the campus, Adv Asha Rajiv inaugurated the same. The expo was very innovative and expressive one. We had a good gathering of parents who appreciated the efforts of the children.

Co-curricular Activities: To bring forth the latent talents of the Cadets, Inter House Competitions were held in Recitation, Declamation, Quiz, Essay Writing, Calligraphy, Debate and Swimming Competition. Wide exposure is also given to the cadets by allowing them to participate in various literary competitions conducted by leading schools in Thiruvananthapuram. It is with pride that I place on record that we have doubled the participation in each event from the previous years.

Our cadets participated in many Inter school competitions held at Trivandrum International School, Bharatiya Vidya Bharati, S N Public School, Christ Nagar International School, St Thomas School, Loyala school etc and won numerous prizes in events such as English Debate, Eloquence, Recitation, Essay Writing, Malayalam elocution, extempore speech, Quiz programme, Painting competition etc.

Old Boys' Association: Sainik School Kadhak has a vibrant and closely-knit Old Boys Association. We as old boys have very close association with our Alma mater. I can safely say this person here since I too am an alumnus of this great institution. Every year OBA organise a reunion in which quite a good number of the Old Boys make it along with their families and children. On behalf of the school I am happy to place on record our deep appreciation for the yeomen service rendered by the OBA in all the developmental activities of the school. This is an occasion to acknowledge their support and I thank Col Sam T Samuel, President, Mr Sasi Somarajan, VP, Col R Sajad, VP, Shri Jain, General Sec, Treasurer Mr Rammohan and all executive and life members. We had a splendid reunion on 09 Jul 2016, sponsored by the batch of 1991. A felicitation function titled Guruvandanam was organised by the batch, where the teachers, past and present, were presented with a memento as a token of love. A variety entertainment programme was organised to entertain the cadets. The event was much enjoyed by our cadets.

On every reunion the old boys do come up with a few innovative projects. This time the conducting batch initiated a project namely 'PILOT ORGANIC FARMING' for cultivating vegetables at the campus itself for the use of cadets & staff. I am happy to intimate you all that the school has taken over the farm and is running it in a successful manner, thanks to the newly formed Horticulture club, which some committed staff and enthusiastic cadets.

On the successful completion of 60th year the old boys of 1973 batch visited the school. The team paid homage to the martyrs and interacted with the cadets on 22 Oct 16.

In connection with the 60th year of 1974 batch 35 members of old boys along with their families visited the school on 16 Dec 16. The Old Boys paid homage to the martyrs and later interacted with the cadets over a cup of tea. They donated an amount of Rs. 10 Lakhs to OBA Student Aid Fund.

Parent-Teacher Meeting: Parent-Teacher Meeting was held for Sub junior, Junior & Senior classes separately each month once in rotation. A large number of parents attended the meeting and interacted with members of the faculty. Celebrations: The school has a custom of celebrating all major events as a part of it, this year we celebrated Onam, Diwali, Miladi shereef, Christmas etc.

This childrens day was a special one to all Kadshaks as a short film filmed by Mathrubhoomi News Channel titled 'A Day of a Cadet' was telecasted on the same day. This portrayed our school well to show its true tenets to the common man who would be much interested in subscribing to this prestigious institution.

// Top of year: Onam celebrations 2016 //

Audit: The Local Audit Officer from LAO Pangode audited the school stores/ cash accounts twice in this academic year. No serious audit objections were reported. Financial Status: The school is facing acute financial crisis with a glaring gap between the total income for the FY 2016-17 (Rs. 71,000,000) and expenditure for the FY 2016-17 (Rs. 98,173,000). The yearly fees was not hiked from 2011-12, and had so far remained stagnant. However, the salary and pensions almost doubled in the last four years due to the 6th pay commission. This case was projected from LBA to State as well as Central Ministry and was also a major point in the last Principals conference. As a result of this, an order was released by the Sainik Schools Society, Ministry of Defence to increase the tuition fee from 52,500/- to 60,000/- and an addition of 10% of subsequent years. The pressures are also on the ministry from the school administration to take over the deficit and has been agreed in principle.

Admission: School administration devotes much importance towards providing the best infrastructural facilities to the cadets as well as staff. Under Active liaison with PWD, a number of works were initiated/ ongoing/ completed. Some of them are-
/ Construction of new septic tank for Dorm 9, 10 & 11. / Construction of covered pathway to Maj Sish Chandran SM Gallery. / Construction and establishment of new Over Head Tank. / Construction of ground level water tank in Dor No 1 to 6. / Commission of a new toilets block in Sainik TPS. / Construction of two new classrooms for Sainik TPS. / Renovation of Ground Level Main Water Reservoir. / Renovation of Dhobi Shed and Washing area. / Mass maintenance of staff quarters. / Augmentation of two roofs and two towers of academic block (using MoD fund) / Construction of NDA Block (using MoD fund) / Construction of Monsoon Training shed covering one Basketball and one Volleyball court. / Re-construction of sewage lines and manholes for staff quarters. / Construction of one new dormitory which can accommodate 120 cadets - estimation is in progress. Most probably this can be commissioned by the end of next academic year. / Installation of state of the art PA system for the conference hall. / Electrical rewiring of renovated buildings. To ease our communication issues of the school, a digital exchange, under the aegis of 91 Inf Bde, will be commissioned soon. Up gradation of existing Campus Management software is under process. With this new version of software, parent's login module will become more active and details about marks and fee details can be viewed. The software is in the final stage of implementation.

Mess: As most of us are aware, the school mess being directly operated by the school administration, has successfully delivered on their assigned task of providing timely and nutritious food to all 630 cadets and their supervisory staff. The school mess holds an FSSAI license since 2014. Considerable effort is being concentrated towards maintenance and upkeep of the Mess. A lot has been done towards the same in the recent past. A heavy duty water filter had been established which now provides filtered water for cooking & drinking purpose. The Steam cooking plants has been replaced which has resulted in considerable saving on cooking gas expenditure. With the help of PWD, Kerala, other civil & electrical works are regularly carried out to maintain the requisite standards. Other ongoing maintenance and upgrading works are expected to fructify before the start of the next academic session. Despite the severe financial crunch being faced, efforts are on from the administrative side to restrain the use of canteen by the cadets and dining in members which would add another milestone in the grooming aspect.

The catering expenditures are over on the rise which forced the school administration to approach the State Govt to increase the dietary charges @ Rs. 10/- per day per cadet, which facilitated achieving a fine balance on the expenditure on messing. However the increase got nullified when as a bolt from the blue, the state civil supplies department was forced to discontinue the APL ration, which was being provided till recently. This alone has resulted in an increase in expenditure of Rs 15 Lakhs per year on procurement of Rice, which is the staple diet.

Entrance Exam: Entrance Exam for the academic session 2017-18 was held in a successful manner on 19th of this month. As many as 1500 students tried their luck at 5 centers across Kerala including the newly started centre at Palakkad and at other centres all over the country. The results are expected to be announced on 8th of Feb 2017.

Conclusion: It is my pristine duty to profoundly thank the Chairman IJA, Air Marshal Jasbir Walia, VM, VSM Air Officer Commanding in Chief Southern Air Command, members of the Local Board of Administration for their valuable guidance and support. I am also grateful to the Govt of Kerala, NCC, DPI, PWD, LNCPC, Sports council, RSRTC, Motor Vehicle Dept., Kerala Police as well as Fire and rescue Depes for their timely help. I also thank President and other respected members of Parent's Association for their advice, support and suggestions.

My gratitude and thanks to the Electronic and Print media for giving ample publicity and recognition to our school. I would like to place on record the excellent work done by the Admin Officer, Vice Principal, Senior Master, Academic, Administrative, PT, NCC staff, Permanent and contractual General Employees and the daily wage employees for making today's events a remarkable one. The direct or indirect contributions of each cadet and parent are highly commendable. My compliments to every one of them for cheerfully shouldering the responsibilities assigned to them in making these events meaningful and organised in a befitting manner. On behalf of all Rashtriks, I once again express my sincere thanks to Shri S Ananthakrishnan IPS, Transport Commissioner, our chief Guest, distinguished guests, parents, Old Boys, and all well wishers of the school on this occasion for being with us. My principal aim as the principal of this great institution is to facilitate actual growth of our cadets nurtured by these parents under my care. When I say actual growth, I do not mean their physical well being alone. As far as I am concerned, I aim at their intellectual growth, widening their horizons and granting them new and invigorating thoughts and arenas to use and sample their curiosity. All our endeavours have been towards attainment of these goals and our prime duty lies in creating gentlemen for the future of our Nation.

Random Thoughts

How fast time flies! It's as if yesterday I was approached for an article for the last edition of the Kasak Cadet, and the call has been made yet again. I'd be the last person to let go an opportunity when it comes to interacting with young minds. This time around, I shall delve upon the universal consensus that we call change. Change being consensus!! What an ideal oxymoron!!! The most resisted thing would definitely be change. Why it is so is a mystery, as it is universally accepted that it is something which is inevitable. Whereas some changes have been necessitated out of societal restructuring, some have come out of purely ill perceived societal norms. My take on this: Change should come about where necessary, the grade of necessity as felt by the majority, and change if necessary should be accepted.

In the name of societal reformation leading to forced changes, we have moved away from simple pleasures of life. Recently I attended a get together of my old school types at a hotel where one of us brought her third child, a daughter, on whom she was clearly besotted. The couple wanted their second child to be a girl after their first child happened to be a boy and I still clearly remember the devastated look when the second one too came out to be a boy. So it was no wonder that they cherished the girl who came in third. Coming back to the story, the adoring mother was interacting with her old friends purely through the medium of her 4 year old daughter. "Sweetie, sing ha ha black sheep; sweetie, how does Poonam ma'am scold children?; sweetie, what did your friend Pimoo tell you? Sweetie this, sweetie that." The proud mother was clearly enjoying herself which could not be said of all others. While most were accommodative at best, disdain on a few faces were clear.

'Sweetie, sing ha ha black sheep; sweetie, how does Poonam ma'am scold children?; sweetie, what did your friend Pimoo tell you? Sweetie this, sweetie that.'

My own below average enthusiasm made me think as to how a favourite pastime among family and friends during get-togethers a decade or so back so suddenly became a big no no. If you care to contemplate, why shouldn't a parent take pride in the ability of their child however silly it may appear to a third person? Don't you show off your laurel saree, cell phone, Sky roof car, external paint on your walls, your not so pure bred lab whom you proudly claim to have just a wee smidge of Doberman in him!! But when it comes to spelling out the goodies of your child, one hesitates and the listeners despise. Strange are the ways of the new world!

There is another thing that fixes me. I'm in for upholding everyone's personal choice when it comes to individual decision of whether a gift has to be offered upon being invited for a personal function or not. The last three-four years have seen a pseudo austere move wherein a prominent declaration in every (almost) invitation card is a loud announcement to Not carry a gift. The tone ranges from a polite 'Your presence is and would be the best present' to a matter of fact 'Avoid gifts and presents please' to an almost rude 'No money or gifts will be accepted'. What does a gift symbolise? For me, personally, it is an indicator of affection, thought and tradition. The great

Ruchelani could not imagine visiting his friend Lord Krishna empty handed. Was it that the Lord desired anything material from his friend? Still he delightfully partook whatever piñance was brought to him out of love and thought. Attending a function is a wilful effort on part of the invitee.

The efforts put in towards picking up a piece of gift for parting is a toil embroiled in love. For most, an invitee with the above mentioned riders are real dampener of spiritus. The reason meted out is avoidance of the burden. The reverse is also a possibility. Have you ever thought of the counter to this? Your invitee comes for a function but refuses to partake a meal hosted by you? Well, he can have his reasons. Doesn't want to burden you, Can afford his own meal, doesn't trust the cook you'd employed and what not. Fine. Let's draw a deal. No gifts shall be brought, no meals should be served. Having said this, I'm also acutely aware of certain lip service in this regard. Recently I was appalled to hear the story of a friend who took too seriously the 'advisory' on the invitee card for a high end wedding only to be later quizzed by the host to know what gift was given by her. Unbelievable? Same here. However I had to believe since I knew my friend from childhood. The crux of the matter? Let your invitees decide. They get something, thank them. They don't, thank them again. After all that's what you wanted in the first place!

So, what's wrong and what's right? Should you extol the virtues of your child in public? Should you carry a gift against the thought process of the host? I will leave it to you to decide, my dear young readers. You are our future and you should have a clear and logical take on matters of the world. I'm not asking anyone to follow traditions but only to grant that freedom and space for ensuring each one's happiness. Be the change you envisage to see in a better world. I have a wonderful year ahead.

NBN Sir

SRI. N BALAKRISHNAN NAIR

I'm unable to write a single word. However, the predicament does not desabilise me, for I know for sure that anyone in my position would feel the same helplessness. I had taken on the responsibility of penning a few words on one of the legends who walked the pious soil of our alma mater, Sri N Balakrishnan Nair Sir. I having volunteered to do that, I really am at a loss as to how to proceed. My worry, would my words be even remotely befitting this great Master! I hope it does.

There are times when you thank your stars for having taken a decision. One time was such whereupon I decided to route my trip to Saurashtra for attending the Principals' Conference through Bangalore. My mission, to spend some time with a teacher, a guru next to God, my NBN sir. I was quite reluctant to go empty handed to meet him and so rang up his son, Sri Pradeep for advice as to what would make him happy. The response was exactly on expected lines. He advised me against any such misadventure, but asked me to be prepared to spend at least half an hour with him, for that's all that he desired from his cadets. Since I was unable to accept the first part of his advice, I spent some time contemplating as to what could be taken without offending the Teacher. Late into the night before my travel, it struck me. I hurriedly got up, searched the net and located a photo of sir and started making a pencil sketch of him. Once finished, I silently thanked God Almighty for giving me the idea and my art teacher, late Sri RB Rao for giving me the wherewithal to execute it.

When I reached his house, he was waiting for me, having been informed by Pradeep sir. I was totally taken aback by the skinny and puny figure who greeted me. It was almost five years since I met him last and it seemed the passing of Mazam had had a telling effect on his health. He was visibly happy in seeing, reconnected to the school for the umpteenth time. He made me sit and excused himself to go attend to his younger brother who was bedridden and a patient of dementia. Once again his greatness was accentuated by his act of adopting his brother, a bachelor, and providing him everything possible. As he resumed lit up with nobleness and his ever radiant smile, I presented him the portrait with much trepidation. To avoid a situation, I had no gift wrapped it and whatever resistance that would've risen up in him seemed to wilt away as he glanced at the portrait. I humbly conveyed that it was sketched by me and saw his eyes gladden and moisten over. He hugged the portrait and cried which made me break down too. He said 'sir, this is a great gift for an old man to receive'. Since the time I reached his house, he had addressed me as 'sir' which very evidently placed me in a painful situation. Sir, Pm 2013 of 90 bauch I said, believing him to be mistaking me for someone else. 'I know' he said 'but now you are the Principal of my school. I should not get the wrath of Gods for addressing the head of my institution which gave me everything in life by his first name'. For the first time, I hated the posing order which miraculously brought me back to my alma mater to serve her. 'But Sir, I am what I am because of the very same alma mater and a set of beautiful teachers like you. Isn't it blasphemous for a teacher to address his student thus? My logic didn't seem to run any ground. That's NBN sir. If he is convinced of something, he wouldn't budge, come hell or high water. 'Sir, Dr APJ Abdul Kalam was also taught by many teachers. He became the President of India. Do you mean to say that his teachers should call him by name and take similar liberties?' I didn't have an answer. However, seeing my terrible predicament and to my total relief, for the rest of our meeting, he interceded without addressing me.

Sir spoke at length about the initial days of our school and how he came out to be a teacher here.

It was so that he was a research fellow at Roorkee, when he was among a few to be handpicked by, as per Sir, the ferocious dictator of sons, the then Defence Minister, Shri VKR Menon. He reached Delhi as ordered and moved to the Defence

Minister's office. There were a few others and he was sent in by the PA in his turn. He was asked by the RM to immediately move to Pangode to which he conveyed his inability due to his research fellowship. Not another word was spoken and he was sent out. Once outside, he was quizzed by the Kerala PA as to what transpired and hearing his response, the good old man appeared shell shocked and advised him to move back immediately to the RM and apologise and accept the offer. A terrified NBN sir moved back in and somehow conveyed his apology and acceptance whereupon, the RM just grunted, nodded and tore a piece of paper on which he was scribbling something. He gave the torn sheet to him and asked him to give it to his PA. The PA took one look at the sheet and looked up to say that it was a letter to his Roorkee University to cancel his fellowship.

Mrs Pradeep brought in tea and snacks at the very same time as my classmate, roll number 2012, Gopi joined us. The conversation then revolved around very many senior OBs, their families and positions etc. Sir brought out old albums and all three of us were immersed in nostalgia till it was time for Gopi to leave for his office. Once Gopi left, Sir was pensive for a while, as if recollecting and structuring certain thoughts in his mind. When he spoke, his words were clear. He said that he was waiting for an opportunity to disclose certain things for long and was happy that he could do so to someone who is in a position as the alma mater. He mentioned a particular Master, again a legend in his own way and about their strained relations based on some misunderstanding that the other nurtured. He said that he always considered that master as his own brother and would remain indebted to him for ever for the kindness shown to him during the delivery of his son as well as during a sensitive medical episode of his wife. On both occasions, that master and his lady had gone out of the way to look after him and take care of his family's needs. He recollected how his family was looked after yet another time by that good soul when he was refused to be absolved from a school day by the then Principal which mandated him to be away for a long period of time. It was a time of extreme strain since his wife was not keeping too well. Due to some silly misunderstandings, the relation strained and he could never clear those misconceptions till date. He cried again stating that it was the biggest mistake in his life for not clearing the air when he could while at school. I consider myself as lacking in the ability to effectively console someone in mental pain and here too was stuck for words. However, he recovered immediately and asked me to sit near him and show and explain the school magazine that I had carried with me to hand over. He evinced a keen interest in the happenings of the school which were reflected in the magazine and gaped with child like wonder at the administrative developments. Once done, he again moved into his brother's room to look after him and after some time called me inside. He had opened a wall almirah wherein he had stacked hand made albums and gift boxes, a viable time pass and a method to keep his brain active as per him. He insisted I pick out my own memoirs not just for me, but my wife and children too. The two boxes, one big and one small, still adorn my house as precious gifts.

It was almost lunch time and I had a train to catch. I had already spend about five hours with Sir. Though he insisted that I should have lunch, I excused myself and took his leave. His parting words still ring in my ears 'I might not be able to see you or our school again. I am not bothered about passing on. I actually passed away when I retired from my home of 30 years. My soul remained there as I moved out. It still remains there. It will always remain there. Do whatever you feel best for the school. Our blessings will be there with you'

I was in school as a class XII student when Sir retired from service in Oct 1989. He continued to stay on in campus, paying rent for his accommodation from his pension and saw our batch through our board exam. Dedication unfamiliar was what all of us perceived it as till now. With his parting words, another viewpoint emerges. As a drowning man desperately tries to stay afloat and retain life, here was a soul which wanted it's body to stay on in the campus for ever and ever, and the five odd months of voluntary work was an effort to appease that need, even partially. How can someone love anyone, that too an institution, so much? On my ride back to the station, his kind face and soft voice kept me company. It shall remain so forever, as a beacon light. Very many anecdotes have been brought forth by his disciples at different forums at different times. For most, he was an epitome of everything that's noble in this world. I may not be able to emulate his goodness, but I can be sure that he would be watching over me from somewhere. Before I wind off, let me endorse his advice to the present set of cadets. He said and I quote, 'Dear cadets, you are in a great institution. Do realise it's true worth while you are it's direct beneficiaries and not once you leave it's warm confines. It may be too late'. I unquote. May God Almighty keep his soul at peace and in the school as he always desired.

Our Heaven

We'll miss them all,
Our school, class and the rocking friends,
These noisy class times.

Day dreaming in the class,
These midnight tears,
The everlasting exam tears.

We miss them all...
Those long clinics,
Seminars and assignments,
Rushing after last dates,
Copying projects and getting,
Kicked out of the class.

We'll miss them all...
Those 'struggle for marks',
'Writing on desks',
'Celebrating the lunch break',
'Fights with teachers',
'Clapping for everything',

We'll miss them all...
That's our school life
Which will never forgets and
We call it with pride,

On the road side,
Lies a man, silent,
Talking no more...
By the rain and awful weather,
His body is wet and with his broken leg,
He can barely walk,
No one looks up to this man anymore,
He is just another fallen object,
Lying on the road side...
The man as he dies,
Looks up at the blue skies,
And no one even stops to cry,
Or to feel any emotions inside,
As his heart hears its last song,
No one wonders if they have done wrong,
As it was, the man just needed love;
Love all along,
But there was no one there,
To mend his broken legs,
The people were too busy,
They could not soothe him,
And make his beating heart calm.
But there was someone,
Up in the sky,
He watched sadly,

As the man slowly died,
His hand reached down,
From the place in the sky,
It carried the man up, up,
Way up high.
But down here,
Things get harder,
Worse than they were before,
More things die,
And drop to the ground.
This goes on...
Oh! God please make these people
Realise that this can be happened,
To anyone at any time.
So my fellow people! Please,
Show some sympathy to your fellow people.

INDIA STRIKES BACK

It was September 18, 2016, the Indian soldiers were taking rest in their camp at Uri after a day long of hard work. All the soldiers were in deep sleep as they were very exhausted. The Pakistani terrorists were waiting for this time. They quietly got inside the tent. Suddenly, they attacked the Indian soldiers. The terrorists threw grenades on the tents the soldiers were sleeping in. The tents caught fire, and our soldiers couldn't escape. 19 soldiers lost their life in the attack and many were severely injured. The whole country was shocked and terrified. The people were in sorrow. Now, the nation sought revenge for the cruel deed of Pakistani terrorists. After receiving an order from the Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the Defence Minister Manohar Parrikar, Indian Armed Forces got ready for showing the Pakistanis what we are capable of. On the night of September 28/29, the Indian Army conducted surgical strike across the Line of Control. The Indian soldiers entered the Pakistani area, killed more than 20 Pakistani soldiers and returned without any Indian soldier being injured. This was a perfect reply to Pakistan. The whole country celebrated the surgical strike conducted by our army. The Defence Ministry of India has stated that now, if Pakistan dares to attack India then India will strike harder this time. As I would like to write that we should be proud of our country's army and respect them.

The Fabulous Five

Once, in a village in the US, there lived a horse, a dog, a goat and a mouse in a hole, near the dog's house. These were the best of friends. One day, as usual the little girl, went to her school, in the morning. The goat jumped into the garden of the house. He saw beautiful flowers grown in the garden. He wanted to eat them. At that time, the dog appeared in front of him and told, "Don't eat them! Daisy grew them up with lots of hard work. The goat frowned. The horse and the mouse came and told 'good morning' to each other. The mouse asked the others, what to play, that day. The goat said, "we can play the game in which one will hide a flower, and others have to find it." "No need of that," said the horse, "it is time for me to take bath," he said and went inside his stable. The dog and mouse, too went for bathing. "This is the right time, to get hold of the right things" thought the goat and started feeding on the flowers. The horse, saw him and shouted, from a distance. By then, the flowers were finished. The goat tried to run away, but he was no match for the horse's speed. The horse

And as the girl is small, she the real and the artificial ones, the ventilation and took the fixed them, in the place of the little girl arrived. She went the sunflowers and then, took animals, were seeing this. Then, that, there were no flowers in and selling that, "I had raised difficulty and some creatures, had adjoined the artificial flowers and put it in the plants and the red ones in the vase, so that if a guess came, he might smell the flowers from the vase and my mother would be impressed. After hearing this, all the animals started laughing at the goat, and the goat went and worried at a corner.

RDC

With faith in the words, truth in the minds, pride in our souls, we, the cadets of Kerala & Lakshadweep Directorate set out towards our dream place, Delhi, on 28th of December 2016 from Kodikode NCC Group HQ and reached Hazrat Nizamuddin Railway station on 31st of December 2016. Our coming was led by Lt. Col. Sunil Kumar G R with the help of ANCS, GIs, PI staff and other Civil Staff who took care of us right from the beginning of our journey. At first many of us could not adjust with the temperature and language but within few days everything fell in place.

It is a dream of every NCC cadet to march on the Rajpath in ceremonial dress, with a rifle in the hand and the sound of the boots overwhelming us with pride.

When we reached the station, officers had been waiting for our arrival for three long hours. We were received by them and taken to the DG NCC Camp in buses. On our arrival we were greeted with tea and snacks.

The Republic Day camp is the best place for making friends. We get to meet Cadets of various states with different cultures. It just seemed like a Mini-India at the DG NCC camp. Cadets of various Sainik Schools also took part. Seeing officers of high ranks always motivated us a lot. Special SSB classes were taken for cadets who were interested in many motivational lectures.

RDC is a culmination of various NCC activities like drill competitions, cultural programmes, para sailing, horse riding, NIAR, Line area competitions and Flag Area competitions. Individual competitions like best cadets competition and YEP competitions were also held. The camp was inaugurated on 1st Jan 2017 by the Vice President of India Dr. Hamid Ansari and it culminated on 28th of Jan 2017 with the Prime Minister's Rally. Our competition began from day one. It started with the All India Guard of honour selection, followed by the Rajpath selection. We can proudly say that 11 out of 12 cadets got selected into the guard of honour and 26 of our cadets got selected into Rajpath.

There were visits by all the three chiefs of the Armed forces on various days. Also visits by the CM of Delhi, Raksha Mantri, Rajya Raksha Mantri and finally the PM of India. I was lucky enough to see all the three chiefs and got to meet both the Prime Minister and the President.

A total of 2068 cadets of 17 NCC Directorates took part in the Republic Day Camp selection. RDC warrants great deal of time and patience. It takes around 10 camps of 10 days each for the selection. At first, it is done at group level and then selection is done at directorate level.

Bands of various schools like Sainik School Kapurthala Punjab, Scindia School Gwalior, MP, Pilani Girls band from Rajasthan and NER band from Mizoram also took part in the Republic day parade.

The cadets of Kerala & Lakshadweep were specially invited by the Vice Chief of Army Staff Lt. Gen. Sarath Chand who is also an alumnus of our school, to his residence for tea.

On 15th of January we got the opportunity to witness the Army day Parade conducted on Cariappa Ground earlier known as Garrison Ground.

Two girl cadets got the director General's Appreciation card and one of our ANO, S/o Reji Joseph got the DG commendation. On the final day that is on the day of the Prime Minister's Rally, the Kerala & Lakshadweep contingents proudly marched and smartly gave the salute to the Prime Minister of India. Finally on 31st of January we left the DG NCC Camp saying goodbye... on 2nd of February we reached Trivandrum Central and were received by Trivandrum Group, Group commander Brig. K.S. Computer is one of the most advanced inventions of man. The first made computers were so large that they occupied an entire building's block. Now the computers have involved in such a way that it now fits in our palms in the form of smart phones.

Computers are used very commonly nowadays. It helps us to develop our creativity and imagination. Computers give us a lot of knowledge. The information that we need can be brought before us at a blink of the eye. A number of books can be stored in the computer in the form of e-books.

As like the advantages, there are a lot many disadvantages. Spending more time with the computer causes eye strain. Computers can also cause distractions from playing video games and using the said medias such as face book and whatsapp which can get addictive.

Computers are both friend and foe, so you should decide which one it is to you.

Agreed, I am a sucker for soccer. I do have my reasons for it. I don't see any other game which is as fulfilling, invigorating, flamboyant, scintillating, mesmerizing, well I can go on and on but I will say it in one sentence, it is the best sport ever and what makes any game the best? Of course, the people who play it. I just adore all the players in international circuit but of them all, my favourite five are as under:

1. Lionel Messi - He is one of the greatest players in the history of soccer. His full name is Lionel Andres Messi. He was born on 24th June 1987 in Rosario, Argentina and plays as a forward for Spanish club FC Barcelona and captains the Argentina national team. He is the only footballer in the world to have won five FIFA Ballon d'Or and is the first player in the history of soccer to have won three European Golden Shoes. He also holds the records for most goals scored in La Liga, a La Liga season (50), a football season (73), and a calendar year (91), as well as the most goals in Super Copa De Espana (12) and most goals in El Clasico (21). His speciality is the Boly Feints. An interesting fact about his home town is that no parent is permitted to name their new born child as Messi!

2. Cristiano Ronaldo - He is also known as one of the greatest footballers in history. His full name is Cristiano Ronaldo dos Santos Aveiro. He was born on 5th February 1985 in Madeira, Portugal and plays for Spanish club Real Madrid. He won his first Ballon d'Or in 2008. He then won his next two Ballon d'Or in 2013 and 2014 respectively. He won his 4th Ballon d'Or in 2016 and also won the inaugural Best FIFA Men's Player award. He is the only player to win four European Golden Shoe awards. His speciality is the knuckleball freekick.

MY FAVOURITE

3. Neymar Jr. - His full name is Neymar da Silva Santos Junior. He was born on 5th February 1992 in Mogi das Cruzes, Brazil. He plays as a Forward for Spanish club FC Barcelona and the Brazil national team. He was twice named the South American Footballer of the Year in 2011 and 2012 before relocating to Europe to join FC Barcelona. As part of Barcelona's attacking trio he won the Continental treble of La Liga, the Copa Del Rey, and the UEFA Champions League in the 2014-15 Season, followed the next year by the Domestic Double. He came third for the FIFA Ballon d'Or in 2015. He is the greatest skilful in the world.

4. Antoine Griezmann - He was born on 21st March 1991 in Macon, France. He plays as a Forward for Spanish Club Atletico Madrid and the France national Team. He was shortlisted for the Ballon d'Or in 2016 in which he finished in third place and the La Liga best player award in 2016. He also won the UEFA European Championship Golden Boot in 2016 and the UEFA European Championship best player of the tournament award and the French player of the year award. His speciality is his unbelievable super speed.

5. Zlatan Ibrahimovic - He was born on 3rd October 1981 in Malmö, Sweden. He plays as a Forward for Manchester United. He was also a member of the Sweden national team until he retired from international football in 2016. During his four season stay at PSG, he won four consecutive Ligue 1 Titles, three Coupes de la Ligue, Coupes de France and was the top scorer in Ligue 1 for three Seasons. In October 2015 he became PSG's all time leading goalscorer. He is Sweden's all time leading goalscorer with 62 goals. He has been awarded Guldbollen (The Golden Ball), given to the Swedish player of the year a record 11 times, 10 of which he won consecutively from 2007 to 2016. His spectacular Bicycle kick for Sweden against England won the 2013 FIFA Puskas Award for goal of the year. His speciality is his Bicycle kick.

he day was boring like any other.

It started with the class leader showing us to be quiet. First period was sleepy (sorry, I mean history) I would remember the teacher coming to the class and peeing out when bell rang.

Meanwhile I had a little chat with Donald Trump and Harry Potter in my dreams. The second was geography. Well, geography is a subject in which no one sleeps with some exceptions (grays like me). After the period I stared at the black board. Well summaries are still a mystery. The next was biology. The teacher was so strict and never allowed anybody to sleep. So, I just forced myself not to do it. But I kept on drifting away. I don't know why. I never listened to any teachers or their preachings. I lived in my own dimensions'. That day, while in the biology lab, my eyes fell on something. It was a specimen a human embryo. The thought made me sick

so the stomach.

I imagined

it crying

and puking on the nurse's arms. If it had grown, I imagined it going to school with a heavy load I imagined it playing with its siblings. I imagined it plucking mangoes from the neighbour's plot. Next I pictured its mother who may have lost her baby to the hands of fate. I felt sorry for all of them. Suddenly the teacher spotted me. She asked me what is Endoplasmic Reticulum. I was not even knowing how to spell it clearly. She sent me out of the class. I was sad at first but then my mood changed as she soon sent me a companion. I just discussed my thoughts of the specimen with him. The answer he gave was unbelievable. "You

Munson head, think if the child could have grown up and created another five children and who in turn would have created another ten children. That is enough for India to submerge due to overpopulation. I was astonished. Then

I understood that I was not the only lunatic in my batch.

GRAND MOTHER

I have a grandmother
A really happy one
She has a smiling face,
Which makes others happy
She does sweet things,
That make me feel good
She gives me lot of love as
No one else does
She becomes a lovely kid
While making children read
She turns into loving mother
While caring for us
She gives us blessings
While being a good mother
She has a happy life and Make others happy.

The Blue crusaders embarked upon their quest to reign supreme in each and every aspect as soon as the academic year 2016-17 kick started. The Cariappans set high on all competitions and vowed to showcase our best at each and every juncture.

The fight to glory began early for the seniors by the arrival of inter-house volleyball and basketball competitions, where we the Cariappans gave a tough fight and bagged the second position in both.

The Cariappans also proved that they were the fittest by bagging the Cross Country Trophy hands down. Our enduring spirit also helped us to take the second position in the PT competition.

Our steely grit and determination paid off another feather to our cap, when the aquatic trophy finally fell into our hands. Our exemplary swimmers Cdt Saurav D D stood out as the Best swimmer and the summing team spirit shown by our swimmers Cdt Nandagopan B, Govind K, and Senior Sergeant Vyshnav Gopi are worth mentioning here.

The mesmerizing performance on the stage by House Captain Alan Sajju, Cdt Sreenadh R and Cdt Naveen Hari made us bag the first position in the Inter-house Declamation competition. Our performance at the athletic meet were also fruitful as we the blue crusaders bagged the second position, missing the first by a whisker. The outstanding performances put in by cadets Adarsh Gopan, Sreenadh R and SCP Bibin Raj sealed it all. However, the year 2016-17 had been a memorable one for us, having accepted our short comings and mistakes in the positive spirit and always aiming a better future for our legacy.

he year 2016-17 was the most fruitful year for the Prasadians. It was a year that rained trophies and prizes for Prasadians.

To begin with Cdt. Shilpa Rajiv Nair bagged the first prize in English Debate and Declamation placing the house on the top. We were second in the inter house Malayalam Debate. Spj. Manoj Kumar and HC Ashut Pramod contributed immensely in making the house top the Intra-house quiz competition. HC Nishin P S represented the country at NCC YEP at Bangladesh. Cdt. Sal S S won first prize in poster making competition. Spj. Manoj Kumar represented Trivandrum group in the NCC quiz held at Calicut and won the first Prize.

In the sports arena, we were unbeaten, we bagged first positions in Football, Basketball & Volleyball thereby clinching the games trophy. Cdt Albert George was adjudged the best player in Football. We also clinched the athletics trophy with far and wide margin. The scintillating performances by Cdt Varun E Adarsh, Albert George, Ajay Rahod, Rahul Raj, Amal Joy and Nishin Sreemukar were worth mentioning. We were runner's up in the Aquatic Championship. Cdt Karthik Yadav was adjudged the best swimmer of the year. HC Nishin P S and Cdt Dhanvin Vinod and Afzal Khan made valuable contribution to the aquatic championship. We also had our green carriers representing in the South Zone Sports meets. Cdt Kashyap Raman and Cdt Amarnath P S were adjudged best player in Football & Volleyball respectively.

In Academics there were lot for us to cheer as we bagged the most illustrious Academic trophy. It added special feathers to our cap. Ultimately all our hardwork and perseverance paid when we went to lift the most coveted trophy, 'The Cock House.' It was like an icing on a cake.

As it had rightly been said Winning is a habit, we proved it by winning the Cock House 6th time in a row and we will continue to do so. As the saying goes, success is a journey not a destination. We express our deep gratitude to all members of Kachak family who not only led us by example but also made valuable contributions to the house.

he year 2016-17 was the beginning of a new chapter for Nehruvians. The highly spirited Nehruvians started off amazingly by bagging the English Debate trophy which was a cake walk for Nehru with cadets Gavin, John, Alben and Piyush. Cadets Samarjeet and Rahul Ranjan continued the streak by winning the first and third prizes in the Hindi Debate and thus clinching the Trophy. But the house suffered a fatal blow by losing the volleyball, basketball and football matches in spite of the unparalleled level of play by cadets Himanshu, Jihin and Kiran Chacko.

However, the Nehruvians' unquenchable thirst for victory converted the bitter defeats into motivation which made them undefeated in the Artapookalam, Calligraphy and Essay Writing competitions in which the performances of Cadets Abhijith, Sooraj, Akshai, Sham, Amal Prakash and Ajay were instrumental. Nehruvians proved to be further immaculate allrounders by exceptional performances in academics by Cadets Gavin, Sham, Akshay Aji, Jeevith and Mohd. Shah. Nehruvians, possessed boundless team spirit along with individuality and confidence in oneself which was proved by winning the individual prizes like Mr. Physique, All-round footballer of the year by House Captain Himanshu and Cricketer of the year by Cadet

Ruben respectively.

The Marvelous physical abilities of the cadets were exhibited during the cross-country and annual athletic meet in which the performances of Cadets Mohd. Shah Anki, Dheekar, Yogesh and Rakesh remained memorable. The stupendous performances of Best Athlete Himanshu and Cadet Yadu are worth special mention. Although, Cadets Alben Benjamin and Akshai R Nair showed their exceptional performances, the rival houses were lucky enough to have overcome it in the English Declamation and Malayalam Debate competition respectively.

The Amazing skill of cadets Abhijith, Abhishek, Ruben, Rejish, Abhinav, Ajay and Himanshu made them trustworthily representatives of the school at the URF Ignite Innerschool Football Tournament in which the school was placed the third.

The high intellect of the house members were further proved when cadet Gavin S Inose cracked the UPSC exam at the very first attempt.

Even though extreme josh, spirit and enthusiasm could not take us to the pinnacle of victory this year, we are sure to make it happen the next year.

The year began with the Shivajians reigning the football field by becoming the champions, riding on the fine performances by Cdt Rohit, Cdt Nikesh and so on. Cdt Abin was adjudged the best player in the junior's category in the Volleyball tournament. Cdt Samil emerged the best player. Sterling performances put up by our orators brought home the coveted Debauz trophy. The names of Cdt Nitesh, Cdt Anandu, Cdt Basil and Cdt Anandhakrishnan are worth mentioning. All Shivajians put forth their best in the cleanliness competition that saw us emerging runners up. On the co-curricular field too our cadets proved their mettle by bagging many prizes. Cdt Abhyamand bagged first in English Calligraphy, while Cdt Abin bagged first in English Essay writing.

The Shivajians added another feather to their cap by emerging victorious in the Inter House Quiz Competition, with the team of Cdt Abin, Cdt Dilip and Cdt Arimardhan lifting the champions trophy.

The Shivaji basketball team too proved its worth by emerging runners up. The performances of Cdt Aron and Cdt Suman were of lofty standards. Cdt Ankit was adjudged the best basketball player. The hockey tournaments too finished with the Shivajians having a smile on their faces by emerging runners up. Cdt Abhinav's and Cdt Shiv Sagar's performances are worth mentioning.

Shivajians are well known for their determination, endurance and die-hard attitude to win. We lived upto that stature by winning the IT competition and being runners up in both cross country and athletics. Cadet Shivsagar was the first to touch the finish line in Cross Country and as many as 29 of our Cds finished in the first enclosure leaving none after the third enclosure. In athletics as Cdt Suman and Cdt Shivsagar kept on bagging medals as Cdt Agam emerged as the best athlete winning two gold and a silver.

The house showed off their budding artists by putting up the house day 'CALYPSO 16' that drew praises from all corners. The Principal appreciated the house for their excellent arrangement of the stage as well as the mind-blowing performances on stage.

At the end we showed that the brawns of Shivaji had brains too by lifting the highly acclaimed Academics trophy. In the end we were delighted that we could defend the Cock House trophy with a convincing margin.

We the Shivajians resolved not to dwell in the past glory but to strike hard for better achievements next year. With the thoughts in our heads that "With These at the helm we will win at the end!"

House Report

2016-2017

- Winners in Inter-house Malayalam Debate
- Runners up in Inter-house Hindi Debate
- Runners up in Aquatic Championship
- Runners up in Malayalam Essay Writing
- Third place in PT Competitions

The academic year 2016-17 was particularly a challenging one for the Tagorians. Although we did not emerge as the champion house, we are sure that we have put up our best. We emerged as runners up in the Debate due to the continued efforts of many of our cadets.

Cdts Aditya N and Anand. S. Nair brought laurels to the house by sharing the 1st prize in Malayalam debate. Cdt. Aditya Dinesh won Principal's special prize in English Debate and Cdt Anshuman won 2nd Prize in Hindi Debate. We, the Tagorians also showed our might in this year's Cross Country Race, in which Cdt Ardraj of class VIII and Cdt Sunny of Class IX won individual prizes. The annual Aquatic championship also went very well for Tagorians as we emerged runners-up with Cdts Abhinav V, Nishin S, Aditya N and Bharath S winning medals in the championship.

Cdt. Radhesh secured first prize in Malayalam Calligraphy and Cdt Aravind Hari secured 1st prize in Malayalam Essay writing competition. We displayed our endurance and fitness during the year's PT competition, in which we secured 3rd place. This determination was also shown in the Annual Athletic meet in which Cdts Ananthu, Pankaj, Ujjwal, Vishnu, Sunny and Rajkumar brought medals to the house, taking us to the 3rd position.

We also displayed our scholarly skills by emerging as runners up in the academic trophy. Even though we fought bravely, we missed the Cock House by a whisker. In scooping up prizes on stage, on the ground and in the class, we are sure that the coveted Cock House Trophy will surely come to the hands of the mighty Tagorians very soon.

We, the lusty Vallatholians set sail for our quest with a determined heart. First our volleyball players Cdt Sreeram, Cdt Adithyan A, Cdt Amal proved their might and became the champions after a long wait. The basketball and hockey players brought laurels to the house by also becoming the champions. Names worth mentioning are Cdt Rohit, Cdt Sidharth M, Cdt Amal, Cdt Ryan and Cdt Manjees show cased the talents in which Cdt Manjees was adjudged the best player in hockey. Our swimmers also put the benchmark of the house high. Cdt Akshay R and Cdt Ryan collaborated their creative skills and ideas which mastered the Vallathol house to come second in the Athapookkalam competition. Vallatholians also produced sportsmen like Cdt Arjun, Cdt Rohit, Cdt Sidharth M who represented the school in the South Zone Meet out of which Cdt Rohit and Cdt Arjun went for the Interzone. Cdt Ryan and Cdt Vinayak represented the school in the Interschool

Quiz competition.

Vallatholians came out second in the Intra House Quiz Competition. Cdt Siddharth, Cdt Jesse, Cdt Sreeram showcased their oratory skills in debate and declamation competitions. Even though Vallatholians could not prove their worth during the Cross-Country race Cdt Arjun and Cdt Chandan brought honour to the house by securing individual second and third respectively. However we Vallatholians squashed every sweat and dirt and became the champions of the annual athletic meet. Cdt Arjun, Cdt Rohit, Cdt Siddharth M, Cdt Akshay S L and Cdt Chandan are worth mentioning. Unfortunately, Vallatholians was in a bit of a hassle when it came to academics. Although Cdt Akash, Cdt Sreeram, Cdt Sidharth M, Cdt Manjees, Cdt Sameer, Cdt Sapar, Cdt Deepak and Cdt Amith accumulated a better CGPA.

We the Vallatholians who learn different lessons from different mistakes, learned an important lesson. 'A person who fails can only understand the worth of success.'

House Report

2016-2017

- ▶ Cuck house of the year 2016-17
- ▶ Winners of English Calligraphy Trophy
- ▶ Champions of the Cross Country Race
- ▶ Winners of the Quiz Competition
- ▶ Best in Academics
- ▶ Second position in Cleanliness Competition

The Ashokians rose high with our wings of fire like the phoenix rising from ashes with fame and glory. With great determination, team spirit and zest, we brought back the coveted Cuck House trophy to our house with lot of laurels trailing behind.

The academic year 2016-2017 was a remarkable year for Ashoka house as we marked every competition by a winning note or by learning lessons from lapses. We started off our endeavour by pocketing many positions in calligraphy competition, in which Cdt Vinay, Cdt Ashwath, Cdt Sachin and Cdt Anis proved their styles and skills of writing.

The tireless perseverance and josh we had did not leave us behind, as we geared for the cleanliness competition. The fabulous styles and dramatisation of Cdt Vasishu and Cdt Isaac has enthralled the audience during recitation competition both sharing the second position and striking the silver for the house along with Cdt Vaibhav and Cdt Yashin.

No way to forget the effervescent quickness of surge, persistence and team spirit shown by our warriors to defeat the enemy on the ground which made an easy cin for us to grab the second position in Inzer house football match and the admired Games Trophy.

Cdt Umnikrishnan and Cdt Ashwin showed their parlour tricks to lift up the aquatic championship where Cdt Umnikrishnan secured a gold and proved his skills.

The hardy, sturdy athletes of Ashoka made way to put up an excellent performance on track and field. The combined efforts of Cdt Rahul, Cdt Vinay, Cdt Ashwath, Cdt Vikash and Cdt Abhijith led us to victory and come home with shower of medals.

The energetic Ashokians with their team spirit and endurance clinched the Bash on Bison trophy for cross country race bringing the torch of fame home. The four scholars Cdt Vaibhav, Cdt Adithya and Cdt Siddharsh worked on their brains for the Quiz Trophy which eluded us by a whisker.

As the tree is known by its fruit, the extremely talented and creative Ashokians presented a cultural extravaganza 'Maurya' 17 where the opportunity met the talents. And finally, Ashokians with their sheer dedication for studies led us to Academic trophy in which the whole lot of VITib standards deserve an applause for their unmatchable performance.

By wielding the shield of glory, with lot of hopes, we look forward in the coming years to bring laurels to our great house as our aspirations for a bright future remain immortal.

he academic year 2016-17 was a challenging one for the Patelians. The inflow of trophies started with the Inter House Football championship where we stood first. The names of Cdt Sujee, Cdt Som and Cdt Aby are worth mentioning. Cdt Aditya Roshan was a Valiant Patelian whose rescuing skills made the house proud in the recreation competition. He was awarded Principals special prize. We proved our muscle in the Inter House Quiz competition and won the second position. It was a commendable effort put up by the team comprising of Cdt Jeevan, Cdt Adwait Prasad and Cdt Maibee. We were placed second in the 'Athappookalam' competition. The 'Patelians' proved their efficiency and team work in being the winners of the keenly contested PT competition. Cdt Jeevan Raj made the house as well as school proud by saving the life of one of his fellow cadets and was awarded for a Bravery during the Republic Day Parade at School. The Athletic Championship was another event which projected the Patelian Spirit. The true determination of the Patelian Athletes placed the House in runner up position with contributions from Cds Sujee, Anand, Priyanshu et al. Although we lost the Academic Trophy by a whisker, the efforts of Cds Ranmak, Anand, Sujee, Shashank, Hafes, Osama, Adwait and Tarun are worth mentioning. The Patelians had a great year full of achievements and are looking forward to a brighter time and are awaiting Cock House trophy though it slipped out of our hands this year.

he academic year of 2016-17 began with the hope of clinching the Cock House title for the second time. We began our venture by bagging first in calligraphy competitions with our young talents Cdes Ayush, Munna and Kundan bagging the first prize in Malayalam, English and Hindi calligraphy respectively.

After giving a tight competition we managed to get the second place for the PT competition.

For the most will-powered and adventure seeking Cadets of Rajaji, Cross Country Race also showed their unity. We bagged the 2nd position in cross country.

With the help of our athletes Prashant, Kundan, Anand, Somu, Jothyradishya Athletics trophy found its way to our shelf.

As part of our Onam celebration we had prepared a beautiful flower carpet to welcome the great king Mahabali for which we were honoured with the second prize. Not only on land the Rajajians proved their worth but also in the water, with Anand bagging the bronze in swimming.

Our scholars Vasanth, Gasal, Munna, Manish, Manav, Saharinalab, Amar and Navaneesh tried their best to lead the way for the Academic trophy. But missed it by a small margin.

Even though we did not get the most coveted Cock House trophy we the Rajajian family understood the value of trying and losing. And as the saying goes "Failure is the stepping stone to success" we would put our heart and soul together and try for it the next time.

We are extremely grateful to all those who helped us this time and look forward to a more challenging year with extended support, guidance and blessings from our teachers and all elders. We also thank to pray for all the blessing from the Almighty for the upcoming years of sunshine and rain.

Success is not final, failure is not fatal. It is the courage to continue that counts.

We VKKMians began this year with much expectations and fought with strong will to take on all the hurdles that came on our way. The VKKMians had shown their ability and excellence in various competitions and participated in various activities and the outcome was rewarding.

We believe in the saying 'No pain No gain'. So through our hard work we came first in Malayalam calligraphy competition by displaying our exemplary calligraphic skills. With the poetic skills of Cdt Arvind Rajiv Nair, we bagged the first prize, leading the house to victory. To welcome the ancient Ruler Mahabali, we the VKKMians displayed a marvelous Athapookalam and wish the oratory skills of our ILC, Ashul P Pramod

we were adjudged first in the Inter-house floral decoration competition. Even though we became third in the Cross-Country Race, one of our friends, Cdt Arun Nand acquired individual position by receiving the Bronze medal. Although we couldn't do well in the inter-house football competition, Cdt. Joel Kurian was adjudged the Best Player. We displayed our skills in G R by bagging the first prize in Quiz competition by our cadets, Mannu V Pillai Soorya Narayanan and Akshath. We got this year's co-curricular trophy. We VKKMians showed our physique by doing well in the PT competition. Cdt Navaneesh D Nair was adjudged the best cadet in class VI. Although we were second in line for the Cock House trophy and missed it by a whisker, we shall strive hard to and achieve it in the coming year as we believe, "Failure is the stepping stone to success."

WHY ARE YOU AFRAID OF THE NIGHT?

Gb Pruthi Jeebin VIII
#504

Why are you afraid of the night?
Is it because of the darkness that flows from the heavens,
Or is it because the light of the sun has gone?
Why are you afraid of the night?
Is it because the moon is changing,
Or is it because you don't see the big, bright sun?
Why are you afraid of the night?
Is it because you keep your eyes on your shadow behind,
Or you don't see your beauty at all?
Why are you afraid of the night?
Do you observe the bats flying across,
Rather than hearing the nightingale's beautiful song?
Why are you afraid of the night?
Do you imagine creatures which are creepy,
Or do you see the shocking star's beauty?
Why are you afraid of the night?
Are you so lazy to not climb up your bed,
Or are you so terrified by your imaginary bed monsters?
Why are you afraid of the night?
Is it because you're afraid of it, too?
Why are you afraid of the night?
And why don't you answer me?
None, is it because you're afraid to answer,
Or is it because you don't know the answer at all?

Eternal

Time passed and even after I secured a job, I used to keep in touch with Hazel, but once when I had to go out of state for some work, I was unable to contact her and only when I returned did I come to know that god had different plans for my dear friend. He had called her to her heavenly abode. Her dad told me that she had died fighting a brain tumour and her death had been inevitable; this made me cry for many straight days.

My name is Ellen, and I am from Ohio. My neighborhood is an area where parents always support girls for almost everything and my parents too supported me, but in my case it was for playing soccer.

I was a failure in my school days, and the college too was not an exception, I was rejected in all the job interviews, but, now I am the CEO of Davenport International Company which has a turnover of several million every year. And if I am here today is because of my dear friend Hazel.

It was in high school that I had met Hazel and soon enough we turned out to be great friends and the only one common link between us was our love for football. We used to walk together, eat together and even study together but during most of this time our main topic of discussion was soccer.

And soon our fondness towards soccer helped us to get to be a part of the high school women's soccer team; and soon our passion for soccer kept increasing. Days went by and so pass we soon joined the Berkley's University, and here too we were selected for the soccer team. This was a time when we were aged around 20 and we had a mind which was full of uncertainties, and it was one of our dreams to grow up and be a soccer player rather than being a nerd who gets stuck up in some crop cubicle which we go on to call as our office.

Hazel's Dad was an Advocate with plenty of money and he on her 21st birthday had bought her a car. Hazel was very happy and we often used to tour around in the city in her car, but yes this car turned out to be a turning point in Hazel's life.

I still remember the day, it was a 4th of March, and I had gone over to her house. We were planning to go to the mall for shopping, but before going she decided to just wash her car and I, being very thoughtful, decided to help her. The car was parked in the porch, which evidently had a subtle slope. Hazel was cleaning the car's trunk, while I was standing near the driver's door. I didn't know how to drive but my curiosity to check out the car took over, and I hesitantly got into the car, while I was just fiddling with the gear my arm accidentally hit the hand brakes, and to my horror the car started rolling back, and it went and hit the back wall; and while the car had crashed I also heard a scream. It was not the damage done to the car, but it was the thought about the origin of the scream that horrified me.

When I rushed out and looked back I saw that Hazel was stuck between the car and the wall and her right leg was totally bloodied and she was unconscious.

Three days had passed; I was with Hazel's dad at the ICU, the doctor had told that the chances of Hazel's leg not being amputated was point zero.

Hazel was later brought back to her home, but I knew, she never would be the same again and nor would be our relation, for now she had a prosthetic leg on.

Hazel was really very sad. She used to cry always and be very depressed, and all this while I was with her, and the emotions passing through me were of profound sadness and guilt. Days passed and Hazel was now emotionally fine. She could walk with her prosthetic leg on, but she knew she will always be classified as a 'handicapped person'. Every afternoon we used to sit together and talk about our old days when we used to play football. Hazel gradually learned how to walk without staggering and even to jog, it was during this time that Craig, our soccer instructor, took notice of her. One day he approached us and suggested to Hazel that she should try playing soccer again. In the beginning she opposed the idea, but eventually with my compulsion, she gave in.

Now this was the beginning of her new life and she slowly learned how to kick the ball properly, how to tackle properly and so on. During this time she used to fall down numerous times and I used to rush for helping her, but she would politely refuse; she would insist on getting up herself and by this time I had known that she had made up her mind about playing the game. She used to practice hard every day with lot of grit and determination and soon enough, she again joined the team.

Years went by and the distance between us kept on increasing for she had decided to dedicate her life to playing football and I had decided to take up business management and for this I had to travel a lot. Even after finishing my courses, companies continued to refuse me, and these were the time when I kept Hazel's picture in my mind and continued to be determined to achieve my aim, and all this while, when I was trying hard to get a job Hazel was a very odd person in this very odd world for me.

Time passed and even after I secured a job, I used to keep in touch with Hazel, but once when I had to go out of state for some work, I was unable to contact her and only when I returned did I come to know that god had different plans for my dear friend. He had called her to her heavenly abode. Her dad told me that she had died fighting a brain tumour and her death had been inevitable; this made me cry for many straight days.

Hazel's grave as per her wishes had been dug out near the football ground and now I go there every day to pay respects to her and our memories, even though she is not alive any more, even though she is not there for advising me anymore, she will be always present in my heart, she, I believe has etched her name in the world and now has become eternal.

I still remember the day, it was a 4th of March, and I had gone over to her house. We were planning to go to the mall for shopping. But before going she decided to just wash her car and I, being very thoughtful, decided to help her. The car was parked in the porch, which evidently had a subtle slope. Hazel was cleaning the car's trunk, while I was standing near the driver's door. I didn't know how to drive but my curiosity to check out the car took over, and I hesitantly got into the car, while I was just fiddling with the gear my arm accidentally hit the hand brakes.

Childhood

home

The rainwater splashed against her red boots, making it wet as well as dirty. She didn't mind even a little bit, as she usually did. She walked through the puddles without taking her eyes away from the little house that stood behind the tall towers and the heavy traffic of the little town.

Awa was drowned in her thoughts. Drowned in her thoughts about her childhood home, where she'd taken her first steps, where she had spoken her first word... where the comfort of the love of her family had always been there and her tears had always been wiped away. She hadn't been there for the past decade. She had been busy with her graduation and finding a job. During the ten years, she'd changed a lot. Her baby with chubby face had become sleek. Her hazel eyes had become a little misty with her far away thoughts. Her eyebrows had learn to wrinkle when she used to think hard. Her straight, brown hair had been cut short to her chin. Her hands which used to make the tasty strawberry pies had become rough with years of hard work. Her long legs had learn to walk faster, faster to defeat others who would let her lose in the game of life. She had altogether changed from the sweet, little girl to a brave, young woman.

As she reached the doorsteps, she heard a faint voice from inside the little house. She had a small smile lighting up her face.

- "Oh, grandma!" she cried, with joy as never found.
- "Oh, my sweets, little Awa! Here you are back again in front of the door after a long time!"
- "You haven't changed a bit, grandma. Awa said, removing her boots, which were soaked in the rain. "I don't have to change just because the world changes, my dear Awa. By the way, you've changed a lot. The look of you! You've become a pretty young woman!"

Awa didn't hear a word that her grandma said after that. She was inside her home, yes, her home, which stood bravely in the midst of all the noise, in middle of the little town. She smells the same fragrance of lily, her grandma's favourite, room freshener. She closed her eyes and stood there, in the warmth of her childhood home.

is to explore if not football then some thing else.."

These words struck my heart. I thought that primary class boy is more confident than me. He is cool and calm about his future. I really thought.

I was thinking all the way to my house about it. I reached home, I met my mother. She asked me, "Dear today I am making your favourite, by the way why were you worried in the morning?"

"Oh! That was just a headache.."

Today I woke up early but the same question was troubling my mind, I am a student who just cleared class XI. I passed the exam with flying colours and scored 98%. But the coming year is very crucial, and what to do after that ???

I washed my face, took a decent bath and went for my breakfast. My mother was really happy after hearing my results, but what to do with my results if I have no aim? My father is proud of me and my performance, but I could not disappoint them..

I had my breakfast and went to play. I enjoyed the game very much. But the same thought was disturbing me. It was about twelve in noon. We had a great time and I rushed back home on my bicycle. While going back, I saw a kid playing football. For leisure I asked him what he was doing. He answered me that he was practising football. I asked "why?"

He replied, "I love football. I want to become a great player."

I asked back "If not, then what?"

He replied something that I could never forget.. He replied, "Then what, the whole world

Friend

Goh Supre Kumar- VII

Do you have a friend who used to help you? Almost all of us have a friend. I also have a friend. His name is Mukesh Kumar. A friend is one who helps us and teaches us many good things and good manners like our teachers do. If we get hurt in any situation, our friend is always there with us to make us laugh or solve a problem. If we don't have a friend, we will feel alone and boring. You should not be greedy and selfish. Whenever you need your friend, he should help and believe properly with everybody. Without a friend we can't achieve our goal. The things which you can't share with your parents and teachers, you can always share with your friends. Your friend should have feelings for you. You just feel complete with each other. In fact, it is said, "A friend in need is a friend indeed".

The Human Mind

Goh Ayush Raj- IX

Human mind is a wonder
Works as fast as thunder
Thoughts of a mind is magical,
But when thoughtless is biological
Mind is an energy bomb
As sinister as bees in a honeycomb.
Mind is sharp,
But sees as hazy.
Mind can be cunning,
But they keep on running,
Mind is powerful,
Only when thoughts are powered
Human mind has many capabilities,
That can do limitless possibilities.
The mind's capability.

Depends on our ability.
When we are capable,
The mind makes the impossible possible
Mind is a tool
That expands more than a balloon
It has no ages
That never ages.
Minds should be used
And not abused
We are the masters of the mind
We must learn to control the mind.

Oh my teacher, you are my god,
And I will ever like your teaching,
Oh my teacher, you are my god
And I will ever like your teachings.

I will wish you in the morning,
And I learn to follow your path,
And step by step you will lead me,
And I will follow you all of my life time!

I will follow you all of my life time
I will follow you all of my life time
And step by step you will lead me
And I will follow you all of my life time!

As it is said 'Touring is the Chief hobby of today's man' and after a long wait my batch too got a tour and our hearts were like a heaven of happiness. In the morning our kits were secured and we were all set to go. Two beautiful tourist buses were our companions for the whole tour. We were assisted by Manoj Sir, Anshy Sir and Rahul Sir. They were just awesome.

Our first visit was to Thennala, Kollam. It was an ecotourism site. There we could enjoy the beauty of nature and also some adventure activities. It was real fun. By seeing the sculptures of dinosaur in the region, I was fascinated. The gigantic sculptures inspired creativity and reverence in people, forcing them to create imaginary forms. Apart from being a visual treat for viewers, this site played an integral role in preserving and nurturing the ecological balance of the region. All of us really enjoyed it. Adventure activities like boating, shooting, flying fox, tarpaulin jumping, rope climbing and cycling were mesmerising. We had our lunch from there and after that visited the deer park and then boarded our bus to Cochin Naval Base.

We reached the destination by late night and our stay was arranged by our ex-headmaster Cdr. Jasem Paul who was a great officer inside his uniform but very humble in heart. He had a personality which was endowed with qualities of both head and heart. The next morning we were fortunate enough to see the take off of aircrafts of our forces. We were able to explore and know more about ships and in the afternoon we had our lunch and then boarded our bus to one of the artificial wonders of Kerala that is 'The Wonder La'. I suggest every child in Kerala must visit Wonder La. It's really amusing. We enjoyed all the rides available within our limited time frame. Visiting 'The Wonder La' was the most satisfying experience as it was a fine balance of modern facilities. No wonder the park is a tourists' haven. Some of the rides there took the whole lot of energy out of us but still we were not satisfied as we had only a very little time. By seven O'clock we boarded our bus back to school and on the way we had our dinner and by late night we were back and then went to our house and had a good sleep. All the three teachers who assisted us were just great and they too appreciated us for being disciplined and co-operative. We were very happy and I suppose none of us will forget the sweet and bitter experiences we had.

Life: A Game of Cricket

Life is a game of cricket!
With a fear of losing a wicket
If you have to bowl,
Do not start to bow
Accept it with a wave of your hat.

If you are caught
Or bowled for naught
Do not cry
Use the next chance well
Do not cry
Just think.

And you will know in a while
Because life is a game of crickets.

Love is just a word, till you show it. Guilt and sin are just words, till you commit it.

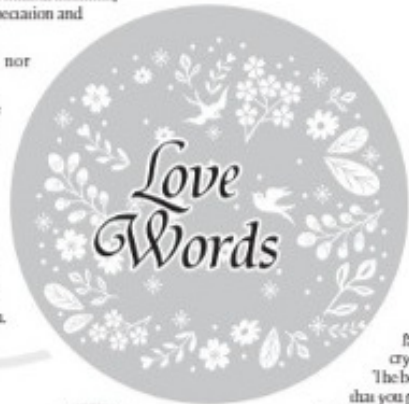

True friends are those who talk without intention, love without condition, without expectation and use cuss words without reason.

Love can neither be defined nor expressed.

The colours seemed brighter, the sounds seemed louder, and the smells seemed more powerful, when your love is in from of your eyes.

Some relationships have to end to make way for a new beginning.

When you are truly in love, nature has its own way of acknowledging it. May be a leaf flutters or a light breeze blows past you.

Whether a breakup is crucial or not, one thing is for sure that it makes a monumental difference in the lives of the people involved.

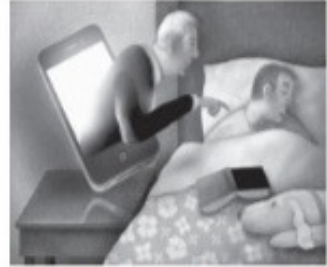

Every one has a bitter past. We all go through so much in life. We shouldn't cry over past memories but learn from them. The best thing about the worst time of your life is that you get to see the truth behind everyone you've ever cared for.

Feelings always speak the truth. If you try to hide them, they come out through other unspoken means like body language and facial expression.

Time decides whom you meet in life, your heart decides whom you want in your life and your behavior decides who will stay in your life.

MIDNIGHT CALLER

Gh Aditya N Dipu - XI

3 minutes had passed since the midnight hour in my old grandfather clock. The sleep I was experiencing was so deep that even a storm would not have woken me up. Usually it was like that. But this time, something happened and I woke at the sound of my phone ringing. I woke up slowly and looked at my phone wall paper. It was the picture of my long lost mother. She was smiling at me. I attended the call hesitantly. I heard nothing from the other side. I took the phone from my car and looked at the number. It was an unknown number. I kept it near my ear and spoke. This time a voice called back. A voice I never expected to hear again in my life. It was my mom. I don't know why I did not get startled but I was fully awake by now. I spoke back and she said that she missed me. She told that she was deeply disturbed by not being able to see me. I cried and cried. Suddenly everything faded and I woke up. It was just a dream. But even though it was dream, I was satisfied that even after leaving me alone in this earth, she still thrived in my mind and in my soul.

I am a tree, fat and round
I have lots of green leaves around me
I have lots of heavy and thin branches
And roots under the ground side to side.
I give you food
I give you shade
I give you wood
I give you fresh air.
I need care
I need air
I need water
I need sunlight.
So don't cut me
Or I will cry
Let me live
I don't want to die.

After the death
We stamp the step of the heaven
The golden glistery steps
When we reach there
There burst open a door
A door of happiness
A door of surprise
There you will see it
The angels of lower
It is up to you
What to do?
To say the truth or the false.

Tears of blood fall from my heart.
I never thought we would be apart
When you held me you said "forever".
Now that you're gone I know you meant "never"
Saying you love me with that look in your eye...
And that was a cold hearted lie.
Your tender touch, a soft hug
Two things I will miss from you,
My face is wet with tears pain due.
I should've cried a long time ago
But I loved you so.
I know they say love is blind
But I had only you on my mind
A trust so deep that it cuts like a knife.
But wounds never heal fast
And I alone in this world
Trying to cope up with the changing times.

A Trip to Bangalore

Our journey to Bangalore began as I was woken up at six o'clock in the morning on May 1 by Acha and was told to get ready instantly. Just great, I hardly had got any sleep out of excitement and Acha told me to get ready that instant! After I finally dragged myself out of my comfy bed, Amme gave me a glass of water and told me to wear my clothes. After the washroom formalities, I got ready and had my breakfast. While I got ready in about fifteen minutes, my whole family took much more time to do so. Anyway, after about an hour we finally left for the airport. At the airport we had many security checks and then boarded the plane. In the plane I kept listening to music so that I won't get bored. After about one hour we reached Bangalore International Airport. In the airport we waited for about thirty minutes 'cause our driver wasn't there. We reached our hotel room after about what seemed like another hour. The room was pretty good actually but there was just this one thing. The TV screen was about as big as our laptop screen. Lol. Literally it was tiny but after about one hour of watching I think my eyes finally got adjusted to the screen. Anyway, after that we were about to go to this museum whose name was so long that I still don't remember it. (I asked my Acha, got scolded for the hundredth time and remembered it as Vishveshvaraiyya Sc & Tech Museum). The museum was pretty close to our hotel so we reached there in about five minutes. I couldn't believe the crowd at the museum, I think there were like about a thousand people in there. We got the tickets pretty fast and went inside and I have to admit it was not such a good first impression of Bangalore. First we saw the dinosaur section and there was this big dinosaur whose head was moving and it looked pretty cool. But then things got boring and there were a lot of mechanical stuff and lots of people so we just went to the ground floor to decide what to do. I really wanted to go to some mall and believe me there were a lot of malls there 'cause I wanted spend my money. I had a budget of ₹1700 and yes I know that's an odd number but see, it's like this. Acha told me that I can spend a third of my Vishu money (The rest obviously went to him!!). I collected ₹4150 from my whole family and also lost a tooth so the tooth fairy gave ₹50 and I asked Acha if I could add that and he said yes so now the total was ₹4200 and what's a third of that? ₹1400 and I know many of you would ask where the remaining ₹300 came from??? See, this is what happened, on the 30th of April Appappa gave me ₹1000 to spend on this trip and I was like yay! my budget's ₹2400 but no, dad told me I only get a third of ₹1000 as usual so only ₹300 got added to my total budget so there you are at ₹1700. Getting back to the Museum, as I was saying we decided on seeing the upper floors before leaving so we visited them too. I admit there was so much cool stuff but everything was rained because of the crowd. When you're trying something out, some kid just pops out of nowhere and starts hitting all the buttons, so the fun of everything was gone. After some time we finally left that place for our next destination but believe me that place was even worse than this one. It was this huge botanical garden named Lal Bapu. The moment we entered, my sister's shoes' sole gave out so she couldn't walk. So Acha told us to wait near a bench while he figured something out. After about forty five minutes Acha came back with a pair of chappals that he bought for her to wear. Later we realised that we hadn't seen a single flower so when we asked a shopkeeper why there weren't any flowers he told us that the plants only bloom in August and that we were there four months early. He did tell us that there were some flowers though, so thank God for that. After I was just about done with this place, Acha told me we were about to see the the Bonsai plants. Thankfully we only spent about fifteen minutes there 'cause there weren't many bonsai trees there in the first place. So after about four hours I was ready to go back to the hotel room. We took a break of half an hour and then left for the mall closest to us, Garuda mall. The first thing we did was buy food. Then we saw a caucos shop and both me and my sis got caucos. So that was ₹100 I used up for my caucos. After that the girls shopped at this shop called Claire's for about an hour as the boys roamed around aimlessly. After that we went to this road called Brigade Road where there are lots of cool shops. We practically bought nothing except 2 books which cost me ₹150 (other was sponsored) so that's ₹250 gone from my budget now. The next day we left for Mysore to visit the Mysore Palace. On the way we also visited Shri Shri Ravishankar's Ashram 'cause Acha wanted to give a portrait he drew of him. Unfortunately Acha couldn't meet Shri Shri because he was not there at that time. After that it was a three hour drive to Mysore. (BTW it took us one hour to reach the Ashram so that's four hours) After about like the whole day rather than three hours, we finally reached the Palace. We spent about an hour in the Palace then we went out for lunch. Then another four hour drive back to Bangalore and we were in our room. In the evening we went back to Brigade Road and first had food from Dunkin' Doughnuts then we bought a watch each for both of us and had food again from a dosa shop. We then had ice cream and left for our room. The next day was the best I would say out of all the three because this is what happened. We got up a bit late because all we had to do that day was shop. Acha went out to get breakfast and after about what seemed like ever we finally had breakfast. After that we left to the UB City mall which was like filled with expensive shops and there was nothing to buy there so we left for the next mall. We took a taxi and the driver told us that there was this good shopping area and that the mall we were going was to open only after an hour, so we thought ok let's go there but it turned out that the place was just a saree shop so we left for 1 MG Lido mall and guess what? The mall had opened about an hour back so that driver had actually tricked us. A guy who was with us in the lift told us that 1MG and Lido mall were 2 different places. So we went to Lido mall and there we didn't even buy anything. So, ultimately we went to Garuda mall, AGAIN! There I played this amazing virtual reality (VR) game called Space Pirates and then went to the game parlour and played there. After that we decided to go to this place called Commercial Street where there was stuff for everyone. I even got a new Nerf gun, the Nerf Elite Resavior which actually cost ₹2000 which means I had to pay back Acha ₹550 but then Acha told me that he was about to buy me a solar kit worth ₹700 with his money so I don't need to pay him back. After that we came back and started to pack since we had to leave the next day. Acha woke me up at about 3:00 AM the next morning 'cause we had to reach the airport early. We had breakfast in the airport and then left for Trivandrum. And that guys was our trip to Bangalore.

Accepting Challenges

Old John Philip George IX
1910

The great English poet H.W. Longfellow has once said, "Resolve, and you are free". One's life in this world is a grand total of his deeds be it good or bad. Every day, I believe we achieve something. One day a new born walks and that is because he has accepted the challenge. Day by day people conquer the impossible. A spirit of adventure fills them.

When I first began to learn basket ball, I had to put my body to extreme limits. When I began to learn the guitar, my fingers ached. And because I overcame my older self it benefited me. When a task is difficult to do, to make it simple we can break it into chunks and finish it. But to achieve it we must never procrastinate and never be a SCAPINGOAT. Self perseverance is important as the devil comes along in the form of entertainment, friends, and anything that will distract you. Actions speak louder than words and once you prove your worth you will be ready to take on another challenge. Every leader that inspires us had to move mountains and they teach us the same thing to accept challenges. I sat in front of maths nose and the feast of my eyes was a hostile problem. My maths teacher came along and said to me, "The only way you get free is by solving that problem and that is the only way". I jugged my memory and a solution appeared.

Every leader that inspires us had to move mountains and they teach us the same thing to accept challenges. I sat in front of maths nose and the feast of my eyes was a hostile problem. My maths teacher came along and said to me, "The only way you get free is by solving that problem and that is the only way".

I sat in front of maths nose and the feast of my eyes was a hostile problem. My maths teacher came along and said to me, "The only way you get free is by solving that problem and that is the only way".

Life will send you challenges every day and perhaps one day you may lose the battle, the victor will be someone. One can understand the humiliation of being the odd one out. A time watch in an ocean of super computers. But remember you are unique. Since you are unique, challenges will come and this is the reason. But once you part your own way and you have shed sweat to meet with mental. The world looks up to you. Before you know it, you are at the pinnacle of your success. Nelson Mandela said, "It always seems impossible until it is done".

LOST FRIEND

When I was young I had a friend. His name was 'Varun'. We were classmates and also neighbours. We used to catch the school bus which will come in the morning on the top of the slope near our house together. We would sit together in the class. We were the class toppers. We used to study in my house in my room. Time passed and one day after the CBSE 12th Board Exam, that evening we were playing crickets with our friends. Suddenly a car came to my house. I like to see guests in my house. So, I stopped playing and went into my house. Here I saw my uncle and his family from Dubai. They were talking about my father getting a job in Dubai. I was excited because we were going to Dubai. It was my dream to go to Dubai at least once. But suddenly my expression changed to sadness because I have to leave my best friend. That night I went to my friends' house to tell it. When I said it they told me to study well in the college. I was going to study. Everyone blessed me. My friend was smiling. But I knew inside that happiness/sadness was there. When I peeped through his room's window, I saw he was lying on his bed and crying. After one month my uncle called and told our flight was the next day. That day we packed everything. When I was packing my friend came to my room. He had something in his hand. He hugged me and gave me a chain with a lock in which our photo was there. I suddenly took it and wore the chain. The next day morning the car came and I kept my luggage inside and sat inside the car. When I peeped through the window, I saw my friend 'Varun' waving his hand at me. That was the last time I saw him. 3 years had passed, now I am a gentlemen working in an IT company as the assistant manager. Because of my intelligence and hard work, I got promotions faster. The CHO of the company like me and I was married to his daughter. I was living in a flat in Dubai. One day I boarded the flight with my family and reached Kerala. When we reached we took a taxi and went to my house. When I reached the destination, I became upset because I saw the neighbourhood house was locked with chains on it and a board hanged on a tree branch. I read it 'House for Sale'. I went to my room with a sad face. I took a shower and had my dinner. After one month the company called me back, and I was ready for the departure the next day. When I was going to get into the flight, I bought a 'Mathrubhumi' Newspaper. It was a Malayalam News Paper. I sat on my seat and started to read the news paper. When I was reading, my eyes stuck on a news. The head line read "ശ്യാമപ്രസാദിന്റെ മരണം" when I read the news completely tears rolled down my eyes. The friend whom I was searching for has gone to a far off place 'the heaven'. It was my friend who met with the accident. He was having a wife and two children. It was sad. When I reached Dubai, my mind was disturbed fully by his thoughts. So the next day I boarded the plane back to Kerala and went for his funeral. For some days my mind was disturbed after I went to Dubai. After a week I became normal and continued to work for my family. But I had lost a precious thing of mine. My best friend. He will always be remembered as the best friend.

I was around 9 pm. I was walking through the woods. Suddenly, I heard a scream. I immediately rushed towards the place from where the noise had come. The sound was that of a man. In the distance, I saw a man writhing in pain as his arm was bleeding profusely. I immediately dressed the wound with my handkerchief. Then, I asked him how it had happened. He replied that he was walking in the woods when suddenly a tiger attacked him. He had escaped and skipped away from the wild beast's attack. But in the struggle, the man got hurt in his left arm. He told me that his name was Philip and that he lived in the nearby town. We walked together talking about ourselves. I found him to be a very good friend. When we reached the nearby town, he gave me his address and I promised to pay him a visit some other day. A couple of days later, I decided to visit him to enquire about his health. I spotted the house mentioned in the address quite easily. I knocked at the door, an old lady opened it. I asked her about Philip and told her that I was his friend. She looked bewildered and did not respond for a while. The unconvincing look on her face made me talk about Philip and our meeting in the forest. Suddenly she pointed at a photo that was hung on the wall and asked me 'Is that the Philip, whom you are looking for?' I said, 'Yes'. Then the remaining words of the old lady, shocked me. She said that Philip was her son and that he had died two years ago in the same woods and that too, attacked by a tiger! Then, who was it that was there with me, that evening? 'Was I been alone with

A GHOST....?'

The Divine Comedy

Gih Aditya N Bipa IX
1814

The divine comedy as many of our readers may have guessed is not a comic. It was a pre renaissance 17th century poetic novel written by Dante Alighieri. It is not a comedy as many people have guessed but the name struck because Italian literature was divided into Tragedy and comedy. Tragedy was made of complicated words and meant only for the aristocracy whereas comedy is simple novels for the public. The Divine Comedy is the journey of Dante through hell and finally finding paradise. His epic is divided into three parts:

- i) Inferno- His journey through hell and experiences in hell
- ii) Purgatory- His journey after escaping hell and going to heaven through 'Mount Purgatory'
- iii) Paradise- the journey in heaven and his experiences in heaven.

FEELINGS

The sigh through my window
It refreshed my dried up mind
The wind that made the trees bow,
Covered me as if to remind.
"You have the spark
Leave the dreadful pass
Spread out your wings like a lark
Don't waste your time, make it fast."

The sparkling little naughty drops played with each other
They giggled and giggled all through
They came down to fall higher and drier
Sad and helpless, on the mud they lay
They reminded me of every thing -
The time when I was helpless
The day I spent dreaming,
And also the days when I felt hopeless.

The sunlight dazoled through the rain drops
And made them sparkle like diamonds
Happiness they spread, along the dreadful hea
But even when all minds are refreshed
My mind is still so crushed
And yes, my heart missed a beat...
The light through the summer rain stood for the bonds
Between the smile and a million hidden tear drops...

As I walked in the Silent Night
I could see the lonely Moon shining bright
The street lights were glittering
Like a diamond necklace.

Even though the weather was quite reckless
I followed the path led by the moon light
In search of soothing beautiful sight
Were our eyes viewless?

I could hear the owls hoot
I could feel the pebbles under my foot
Because of the way which was not clear
But the sound of the owl was clear.

The stars were twinkling with all its spares
The twinkling light spreads the nasty clouds
But the focus of light kept staring at me
Without doing any dare.

The night was very silent and very cold
But I knew, how much lonely
In the shades of night were I wandered freely
Were inside I stood bold.

I see a knight in shining armour. There, far away in the battle field. He was brave though a common led. One day he chose to be different. He chose to stand out of his hereditary. He chiselled his brain and polished his intellect, to achieve his goal and Yes, He did it!

And today people salute him with respect, pride and envy combined. He now knows the grief to stay alone in the crowd without his loved ones. But he knows that life. His life is a mixture of destiny and choice. A choice that he made which destiny had in store for him. He was born to make a difference. So we call him, Kazhak Cadet.

A smile is quite a funny thing
He wrinkles up your face.

You see what smile can do
You smile at one
He smiles at you,
And some how, one smile
Makes two.

Once a lion suffered from indigestion. He ordered all the doctors from the forest to visit him. "It is bad breath you are suffering from, your Majesty", said the Zebra in a professional manner. "How dare you, you idiot!" said the lion and tore the Zebra into pieces. "It is quite a pleasant smell," exclaimed the hyena. He thought it better not to take any risk. "The flatterer!" roared the angry lion and pounced on the hyena tearing him also into pieces. "And what is your opinion?" the lion asked the fox. "Sorry, your Majesty" replied the clever fox. "I have, cold and I can hardly smell anything." The fox was spared.

A Mother's Love for her Child

A mother with her child went to a fair,
But the mother did not have any care.
In that fair the child got lost,
And the mother was under a crush.
The mother went in search of her child
But the mother became blind for her child
The mother went for buying toy to a shop
Her child was there near to that shop

But the mother did not see the child
As she became blind.
May be her child wanted a toy
So that he could enjoy

Suddenly the child saw his mother
And started crying
The mother saw her child
Crying very high

At last the mother took her child in her lap.
The mother was so happy of that shopping
Because she had gotten what she was hoping,
The mother was shock

Of that kind shop
Because she could share her child with a lot of crush
Even after she had lost.
Really it was a big fair

In that fair
She could enjoy her child as any crush
This was mother's care.
Really it was a big fair

In that wonderful fair
That she could enjoy her child as any crush
Even in the winter fair
This was mother's care
For her child in that fair.

INTER ZONE 3.0

As we the 16 member football team stood on the platform of Trivandrum Central Railway Station, we were ecstatic. Though it was scorching hot and humid, yet we were very upbeat. We were going to Sainik School Rewa in Madhya Pradesh to participate in the All India Inter Zone Sainik School football championship. When we boarded the train, it was teeming with people.

Just a week ago we had won the South Zone tournament. Every match in South Zone was pulsating. In the first match we played our arch rival S.S. Korukonda. Despite our domination through the game we couldn't make it. The score read 0-0. It was a heart throbbing draw. We won the second match against S.S. Bijapur by 2-0 with the brace from Manoj supported by well-timed pass from Ajay Rathod. The last match was against S.S. Kodagu. It was a deciding match. In this crucial match Ajay put leg forward to score the opening goal and Manoj followed suit scoring a hatrick. Thus we won by a whopping 6-0.

In all the matches our defenders Randhir Kumar, Vikash, Abhishek. A and Kishore. S Thampi stood like a formidable wall. Our strikers did a fantastic job. A special mention of Kashyap and Jitin Antony. The midfielders Arjun, Nandu, Manoj and Rajnish provided good support. Thus we emerged champion in South Zone and Kashyap Remanen was adjudged the best player of the tournament for his sublime skills. Our goalkeepers Abhinav K.J and Mohammed Shah were simply the best.

It was after these wins, we headed to Rewa. We reached Bhopal at midnight. Our train from Bhopal to Rewa was at 10PM. We had lots of time. So, to pass our time we decided to go for sight seeing in and around Bhopal city.

First we went to a beautiful lake which is situated in the middle of the city. There is a famous temple which is perched on a hill top very near the lake. In the afternoon we went to a multiplex and watched 'Dishoom' movie. It was a good film filled with fun and humor. In the evening we went to a shopping mall and we did window shopping. No sooner did we come out from the mall than it started raining. Soon we were dripping wet but we caught a taxi and returned to the hotel. From there we came to Bhopal railway station and reached Rewa early in the morning.

Sainik school Rewa has a sprawling campus and robust infrastructure. The football fields were grass courts that made it a bit difficult to play. Nevertheless, every match we fought tooth and nail. The first match was played between us and S.S. Ghorekhal who were defending champions; we gave a good fight but they had the last laugh. We lost by a razor thin margin of 1-2. We played the second match against S.S. Impal and again went down fighting 0-2. Although we could not make a good start, in the third game we were back with all gun blazing. We marauded S.S. Tilaya by 4-0. The last match was played against S.S. Balachadi and we won by a wide 5-0 margin in which Kashyap Remanen scored hatrick. In overall position we were placed 3rd. That was definitely a good position when we consider our position in the last two years in the Inter Zone. We also put up a good show in the cultural evening. The dance team members were Nandu, Kashyap, Arjun, Akash, Gogul M, were amazing.

In our pack, we had Cdt. Kashyap R and Cdt. Manoj who played interzone for last two years. Their experience came handy in reducing the goal margin while playing against teams like Ghorekhal and Impal.

On 10th August we returned to our school. We express our deep gratitude to our masters Mr. Shakti Singh and Mr. Lal Abraham who accompanied us.

All in all, it was a good experience.

Last night, I had a dream,
Which made me scream
I rushed outside the room,
And saw a lady flying on a broom.
On realizing that she was a witch,
My muscles began to twitch.
She was dressed in the black,
Her broom gave me a whack.
She sat down on my bed,
And my face turned to red.

Then I saw a beam of light,
The witch went out of my sight.
It was then I realized,
It was nothing but a haunted night.

Do you have a friend who used to help you? Almost all of us have a friend. I also have a friend. His name is Mukesh Kumar. A friend is one who helps us and teaches us many good things and good manners like our teachers do. If we get hurt in any situation, our friend is always there with us to make us laugh or solve a problem. If we don't have a friend, we will feel alone and boring. You should not be greedy and selfish. Whenever you need your friend, he should help and behave properly with everybody. Without a friend we can't achieve our goal. The things which you can't share with your parents and teachers, you can always share with your friends. Your friend should have feelings for you. You just feel complete with each other. In fact, it is said, 'A friend in need is a friend indeed'.

I am waiting

Mr. K. S. Anand
Asst. Master, English

I am waiting for a morrow
A 'colourless' morrow I'm waiting for
It will have only the colours of the rising sun
And the hues of the dancing rainbow.

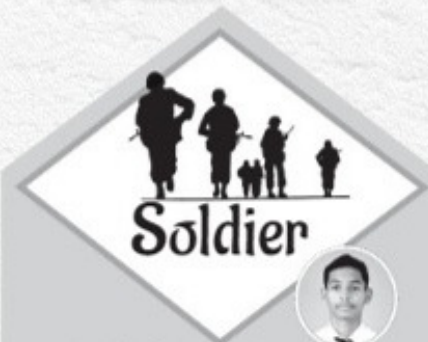

I am waiting for a morrow
A 'colourless' morrow I'm waiting for
Where people will not discriminate
On the basis of the colour of our skin.

I am waiting for a peaceful morrow
Where people do not bleed for religion
Nor talk of laying traps
For one another on the basis of 'isms'.

I am waiting for a 'wall less' world
Where people do not build and mend walls
Never ever talk of fencing
With the barbed wire of hatred and fanaticism.

I am waiting for a lovely world
Where people would share with and care for one another
Never ever talk of snatching the beggar's bowl
But would wipe one another's tears.

I am waiting for a joyful world
Where our joys are common and sorrows shared
Never one grows sick of another's joy
But would rejoice at other's well being!

Father, Father, who is a soldier
'Tell me father who is a soldier
Look my son, Look my son,
Men with uniform and a gun!
Father, Father, what is a gun!
Tell me father what is a gun!
He kills enemy with this gun!
Hard life leading is his fun!
Silent standing! On face scars,
Like a viper! He fights the war.
Father, Father, what is your aim!
Father, Father, what is your aim!
You become a soldier! This is my aim.
Be a brave soldier! Bring me fame.

What is the cause of these troubles? Reason could be that the people don't follow the human values. Now what are these Human values? They are the guiding principles that make us human. It is something that is within us. Just as ice is cold and fire is hot, naturally a human being is born with human values. They are inherent. They are already in each one of us. Each human being has a character.

The rise of global terrorism, 9/11, the Paris attacks, the increasing crimes, blood baths in the name of religion, the slaughter of gentle animals for economic gains, child labour, various destruction of the environment for short term gains, genetic engineering of plants and animals, unbridled desires and opulent lifestyles while fellow beings struggle for drinking water and one-time meal, deforestation, global warming and climate change, the stockpiling of nuclear arms and their getting into the hands of the heartless ruthless terrorists. These mindless violence and wickedness seems to be only escalating each day.

What is the cause of these troubles? Reason could be that the people don't follow the human values. Now what are these human values? They are the guiding principles that make us human. It is something that is within us. Just as ice is cold and fire is hot, naturally a human being is born with human values. They are inherent. They are already in each one of us. Each human being has a character.

If human values are instilled in your character, they help us to develop our character. Our character is reflected in our words, behaviour and conduct in our daily life. We can practice the human values everyday in our life. Inculcate the habit of speaking the truth. Be honest and sincere in whatever you do in your life. Admit your mistake truthfully.

Nobody is born bad. Circumstances make him bad. When these bad qualities are removed from us we retain some good qualities and thus we develop the good qualities. Diamond looks like an ordinary rock when it is in the earth. From a rock in the mine it transforms into sparkling, shining and a valuable jewel when cleaned and polished. Dust and dirt that cover us are the bad qualities like anger, greed, telling lies, harming and hurting others. When we practice instilling human values it is like cleaning and polishing ourselves, just like a diamond, we get cleaned and become more valuable. These form our character. Our character is WHO we are and WHAT we do when no one is watching us. 'Good Character' means doing the right thing just because it is right to do what is right.

Do what is right. Keep your clothes and belongings in the proper place neatly and cleanly. Respect your parents, teachers and elders. Avoid anger. Be patient, humble, simple and contented. Love your parents, brothers, sisters, friends and love yourself. Forgive others and choose your friends carefully and choose only good ones. By practicing these basic human values, you can definitely escalate your character.

Good character is needed to be morally ideal citizen. You can build good character step by step by choosing the right choice. By practicing the human values, our thoughts, feelings and emotions become pure and it gives us the power of discrimination. When we consciously start choosing and practicing it turns into habits. It is said that thoughts become words, words become actions, actions become habits, habits become Character and character makes the destiny.

Therefore, to have a great future each one should instill human values in your character. Add these values little by little daily in your character. Thus you can be a person with good character. People around you should feel, 'Ah! how good! How useful, how intelligent! This young man/woman has become. How exemplary is her manners and conduct!'

Thus this will make you a role model and definitely make your parents happy.

I would like to narrate a story before concluding.

Pure and good feelings come from the heart only when Virtues and Character are present. Even as a young boy, Pahlada had extraordinary character. Later when he grew up, he was a righteous king and ruled the kingdom virtuously. He would never say no to anyone who approached him for a favour, gift or any help. He was able to achieve much success and victory.

Once Lord Indra intended to test Pahlada and so came to him in disguise. Pahlada offered his respects to him and asked, "What do you seek of me? How can I make you happy?" Indra who was in disguise replied, "O King! I want very little. Just give me your Character." A surprised Pahlada said, "That I can give but you should really ask for something more important. I am ready to give you anything you want. Why then are you prepared to settle for something so little?" Indra replied, "For me this small thing is enough. I do not want much." Pahlada said, "As you wish." Indra was very pleased with Pahlada's willingness to part with even his character in order to keep the word he had given.

Immediately after Indra left, a Charming young man was seen walking away from the royal court. Pahlada was surprised and asked, "Who are you?" The young man replied, "I am Fame. I cannot stay with you any longer since Character has left you."

A few seconds later, another handsome person was seen walking away from the court. Pahlada asked, "May I know who you are?" He replied, "I am Valour. How can I be with you without Character and Fame? Therefore, I am leaving you."

Soon a charming lady was leaving the court in hurried steps. Pahlada asked her, "Mother, may I know who you are?" "I am Rajalekshmi. I represent your Kingdom and wealth." Once Character leaves, Fame and Valour departs, Kingdom and wealth have to do likewise; therefore, I am leaving you!"

In this manner, Pahlada lost everything. Now, a depressed Pahlada came to realize the very important role that character played in life. Pahlada sat quietly praying intensely to the Lord for the restoration of his character. Indra watched all the events. Looking at the dejected Pahlada, he appeared in his true form as Indra and told, "Son, I had come to test your ability of keeping up the word.

"Here, I give back your character. Character is supreme. Fame, wealth, kingdom, everything comes and stays with the person who has good character." Indra returned the gift he had received. And when this happened, all the others too returned to the court and said, "We cannot exist without character. Now that the Character is back, please allow us to be with you."

This story teaches how fundamental and important Values and Character in our lives are. It teaches that once character is lost, everything is lost. Life without character is like a pot full of holes. Water can never be retained in a pot with holes. So the essential human quality will never be retained in the life of a person without character. The welfare of a country depends on the character of its citizens. Men and women of character alone bring prosperity to a Nation.

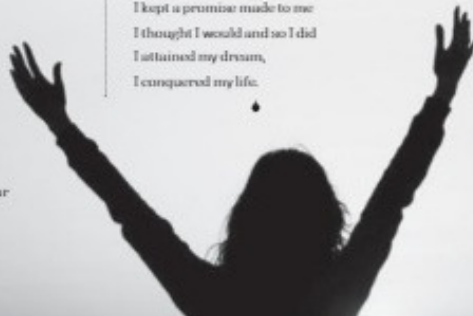

In Pursuit of Passion

Ch. Shilpa Raju Nair - XI

I stared back at the sheet
So white and pure
As it sat and stared at me
Challenging,
My intellect, waiting to flow
Through the poised pen in my hand
I close my eyes in a silent prayer,
Think through my pains and tribulations;
Of the last few months, as I garnered
Ability and wherewithal,
to attempt a formidable hurdle.
Some call it an exam, others a test
I see it as an impediment;
A wall hiding my dream,
A dream I nurtured since the time,
I could barely spell the word.
The earnest face of my mother,
The soft glitter in my father's eyes,
Came flooding to me,
As I sat there, a quarter past the start
All I 'knew' lurking somewhere
Needing a push of my passion
The dream of mine waiting a release
My life beyond this testing time
And as the clock struck half of the first hour
I felt a rush of life empower;

My head bent a little lower
My pen did not any more hover
How time flew, I can't remember
How I could tackle so well, I wonder
And as the clock struck 12
To tell that the test was over,
I stared at the sheets -
No more white, nor staring,
I basked in glory, victory,
A crumbling wall, now just a story
My head held high, I did me proud
I kept a promise made to me
I thought I would and so I did
I attained my dream,
I conquered my life.

Life is a beautiful story memories are the pages to turn Lovely songs can be heard, when sweet memories pass over
Life becomes beautiful, filled with love, care and happiness,
Life becomes a paradise,
bloomed with each and every flower.
Rain pours out and cries for happiness
Lovely thoughts and beautiful birds, colours of rainbow comes everyday sun gives light to life,
moon gives shade to life.
Life cannot be cheated,
Love can be cheated,
Love is a lesson in life,
live a life filled with love,
Life is a paradise.
I sleep and dream that life is joy
I awoke and saw that life was service.
I acted and beheld, service was joy.

Everyone is differently able, but
Everyone has abilities
Everyone is differently able, but
Make their lives work differently
Now you might use a chair with wheels to get around,
You might use your hands to speak without a sound, cause
There are million ways to do anything.
Some people love and dance, some people prefer to sing,
You can use a peedog to help you see or use your mouth and feet to paint and write novels or poetry
There are million different ways that you can be.
It's true that all of us live independently
I will not be defined by my limitations.
But rather by my possibilities.
We can respond to the needs of those around.
The best ability is to have a kind heart and a willing soul.

Standing here, on the cliff
 My wandering eyes
 Glimpse a blinding cascade
 Stretched over the miles.

It is the ocean vast and blue
 Unpredictable, yet eerily calm
 She never ceases to enchant you
 With her unparalleled charm.

Mingling with rays of the sun
 Like a chain of shimmering gold
 She adorns the crimson horizon
 As I watch the dusk unfold.

She greets me with a gentle breeze
 That makes the nature dance
 Flowers, bushes, grasses and leaves
 Sway, like in a mystical trance.

The Ocean is the true embodiment
 Of nature's strength and beauty
 She captures hearts in an instant
 With her divine tranquility.

भारत के हम बीर सिपाही,
एक ही बात रटते,
सर कटा सकते मगर, सर छुटा सकते नहीं।
पुन मीने आंखें, तो खीर नें मूँच, पर काश्मीर मीने ली थीर दूँसा।
छनी कर दूँ मोर्निंग नें उमकी सीमा,
जो भारत की ओर कर नें अपनी दूरी नैना।
वेस के लिए हम बीर
मरते भी है उरी देश के लिए
जिस गिट्टी नें है हम जग्गे, चले-चुले
उसी गिट्टी के है हम बीर मलादूर
भारत के हम बीर सिपाही,
कदम-कदम आगे बढ़ते, एक ही बात कहते,
सर कटा सकते मगर, सर छुटा सके नहीं।

THE SINGLE REASON

Cdr Sagar K. XI

Love was the reason
Behind my thoughts
Love was the reason
Behind my words
Love was the reason behind my feelings
Everyday and every night
You are my soul
Which leads me on
I am fine when you are with me.

Love was the reason
Behind my hope
And my wetted eyes
Love was the reason
For my restless thoughts
And my sleepless nights
You are my soul
Which leads me on
I am fine when you are with me.

Love was the reason
For my broken heart
And my speechless tongue
Love was the reason
For every single smile with tears
Love was the reason
For my unknown feeling
You are my soul.

Which leads me on
I am fine when I am on your shoulders.

I am the greatest criminal in history
I have killed more people than that have fallen
In all the wars of the world.
I have turned people into braves.
I have made millions of homes unhappy.
I have changed many young men into Hopeless parasites
I destroy the weak and weaken the strong.
I make the wise a fool and ensnare the innocents
I have ruined millions and shall try to ruin millions more;
I'm Alcohol

When I peeped through my window
I saw the sun shine
When I look down, I saw the Meadow
Where the grass sparkled in the Sunshine.
The sun's beams falling on the stream
Which made the stream sparkle and glimmer
Like heavens of dreams
Were the wishes fulfilled.

In this place of glory
My eyes got attracted towards beauty
I rushed towards my view
Which made my mind, so see out a review.

My mind told me that, I reached the heaven
Then I turned and I saw a butterfly with lots of colours
Which was bright like a rainbow before rain
Then suddenly my views got blurry.

Then I looked, the sun went down slowly
Then my views filled with dark and I felt sad
Then I went down and sat near a tree
And waited for the sun to rise once again.

THE WISE FARMER

A farmer had a strong young cow. Some thieves had their eyes on the hefty cow. They were looking for a chance to steal the cow and sell it at a good price in a far off place. One day the thieves found the cow unguarded and took it away. The farmer saw the cow stolen by the thieves and took a stick and ran after the thieves and over took them. Then he said, "Leave my cow alone or I shall do what my father did." The thieves got afraid and gave his cow to him and one thief asked "Will you tell us what your father did?" The farmer laughed loudly on hearing the question. After some time he stopped laughing and said, "When the cow of my father was stolen he could not find it, he bought a new cow. And this cow is that same cow". The thieves also broke into laughter and went away praising the farmer's wit.

As I reached out to her, she vanished,
And I stood there hollow.
At home, I asked my brother
Why are you doleful?

"Sister, is it me who's doleful?" came the answer
I left, with a weary smile.

I saw her again, this time I ran after her and Cried out, "please, don't leave me unanswered."
But she left me without even thinking to look back
I stood there alone.

On my bed, was I lying fully awake.
I slowly closed my eyes.
I went out to the terrace
I saw her, "Please, don't go," I said.
But this time she didn't
She turned back and said, "Feel me, hear me,
My dear..."

And she went away smiling,
I stood there alone facing her,
Thinking it was a dream or if she appeared for real.

I felt her, I heard her
For the first time,
I found myself facing her, boldly,
With a smile.

I found myself smiling in the silent dawn
For the first time...

എത്ര സുന്ദരീ കാഴ്ചകൾ
ഇവകളും പൂക്കളും തീർത്തുളളവകളിനെയ്
തളയ്ക്കി നിർമ്മയ്ക്കും അക്കാലം
അമ്മകളും അവകളും പൊട്ടിപ്പിരി
വെക്കുകയ്ക്ക് എത്ര അക്കാലം
പുഴകളും കരകളുമാരും ധ്വനി
കുഴപ്പമേനി കൊണ്ടൊരുപ്പും അക്കാലം
ഇത്ര സുന്ദരീ കാഴ്ചകൾ
കണിയാതൊരുപ്പും അക്കാലം

I had a strange dream
I started growing;
I grew as big as my cot,
Then as big as my room
Went on to become as big as my house
Breaking the walls and roof;
I grew as big as a hill
And then to the size of a mountain
And into the size of the world
Filling every inch, every breathing space.
I had legs as big as the Eiffel Tower
And arms ten times as long as the London Bridge
My head was no less than the size of the moon
And a belly as enormous as all the oceans put together.
Now I felt a strange happiness
Fill my very being.
Then I had a strange fancy;
I should like to take a look at myself.
How? In a mirror, of course.
But there wasn't a mirror
Huge enough for my size;
I felt terribly upset.
Then I thought I would ask someone
How I looked like.
But then I realised
There wasn't an insect around;
There was no one in the world
Except me.
How could anyone else exist
When I filled every inch?
I felt terribly lonely
And thought I would move about a bit
For a change.
But alas! I couldn't lift my legs;
They were too big and heavy to lift.

I thought I would lie down a while
But neither could I do that.
By now I was being bothered
By loneliness and by being unable to do anything.
Now I realised how comfortable I was Like a tiny creepy crawly
Going about my daily chores,
Messing others like me.
There was change, there was fun
The fun of loving and being loved
The joy of caring and being cared for
There was meaning in life.
Now I learn how foolish I was
To grow so huge
As to trample and suffocate others
And sometimes to the extent
Of 'eliminating' them.
Life gains its meaning and depth
From the relationship with others
It is in living together that Life becomes meaningful.
Then I prayed to God
To make me a normal being
I begged for His forgiveness
For the times I had pulled up my ego
And nourished the "I" in me.
And soon I saw myself growing small
And reaching the normal size.
Suddenly I woke up
And walked straight to the dressing table
I looked in the mirror
And confirmed that it was only a dream.
I let a sigh of relief
And decided to be "WE"
And not "I".

संयुक्त परिवार

Chh Shashi Ranjan Saman - VIII # 3837

परिवार क्या है? यह एक ऐसा गुच्छा है जिसमें हम अपने सभ्यता में एक दूसरे को जुड़ा-जुड़ा के साथी रहते हैं। संयुक्त परिवार एक ऐसा परिवार है जहाँ हममें एकता एवं विभीषी भी सहयोगपूर्ण भाई बंधु-सह-बंधु बंधन हैं जहाँ एक साथ मिलकर एकता विचारण करते हैं। ज्ञान-सखत हम यह कह सकते हैं कि किसी के सखत-विश्व ज्ञाना ज्ञान-बन्धी ज्ञाना सखत भी साथ नहीं रहते। ये सभ्यता है कि ज्ञाना परिवार सुखी परिवार। किसे भी यह पसंद आए तो यह है, यह ज्ञाना सभ्यता को कोई सखत नहीं रहता। एक संयुक्त परिवार को सखतों के लिए हमें सखतों साथ में सभी को एक सखत कर सखत साथ सुख-सुख में हमेशा रहना चाहिए। ये यह इसलिए कि यह है कि एक ही साथ सभ्यताओं सखतों के लिए ज्ञाना में हमेशा हम परिवारों को भी सखतों में सखत रहते हैं। भाई - भाई में भाई सखतों। सखतों के लिए एक भाई को दूसरे का सुखना सखतों है। सखतों में भी को ज्ञाना परिवार के सखत सखतों सखतों ज्ञाना सखतों ज्ञाना सखतों ज्ञाना सखतों ज्ञाना सखतों पर विचारण करे को भी सखतों है कि यह परिवार सभी सखतों के ज्ञाना सुखों नहीं रहते। इसलिए हमें ज्ञाना पर एवं सभ्यता पर सखतों है सखतों इसी सखतों सुखों में भी हमेशा परिवार एक संयुक्त परिवार है जो हमें सखतों ज्ञाना सखतों सखतों।

I am indeed fortunate that I had the opportunity to visit Sainik School, Tiruvananthapuram, an institution of great standing. My visit was very educational and the presentation given was very informative. I hope the School management will maintain its high moral posture and strive to keep up the traditions of this institution, enabling it to maintain its top position among the Sainik Schools. My best wishes to the Principal and the teachers and the students.

EDITORIAL Musings...

Patience, Will power, Determination, Courage and Confidence are the sterling qualities of the mind which are indispensable in the struggle of life. Lives of great personalities are nothing but success stories where it has been proved beyond doubt that sooner or later the man who wins is the man who thinks he can. So always have a positive attitude as by being an optimist, you can turn scars into stars and thus win laurels in life. Remember, Destiny is not a matter of Chance, it is a matter of Choice! It is not a thing to be waited upon. Rather it is a thing to be ACQUIRED.

As we all know a school JOURNAL raises a School - its aims and objectives. It also highlights events, activities, and academic progress and achievements. We need to recognize, appreciate, applaud and foster the fine blend of specialities in a child and thus the journal is to be viewed as a launch pad for the children's creative urges to blossom naturally. As the saying goes, "Mind like a parachute needs test when opened." This humble initiation is to let the budding minds fly, allowing them to roam free in the realm of imagination and experience to create a world of beauty in words.

All these I believe would spur higher growth and exploration in children.

I Believe...

Having entered the portals of Sainik School Kazhakootam, I believe that I have climbed a pedestal. Henceforth my aims and dreams shall be lofty and worthy of emulation. I shall set standards for myself worthy of an Officer and a Gentleman of the Armed forces and an ideal citizen of the Nation. I shall do my utmost to cherish and uphold the honour and fair name of my alma mater at all times.
