1.	Article IV, Section 1 A iv	Any person seeking election as the President should have held either of the following posts in SSKZM OBA EC at least two years any time during the preceding 15 years. a. President b. Vice President c. General Secretary d. Joint Secretary e. Treasurer	Any person seeking election as the President should have held either of the following posts in SSKZM OBA EC at least for two years any time during the preceding 15 years. a. President b. Vice President c. General Secretary d. Joint Secretary e. Treasurer f. An Ex-officio Member, who has been in EC even as a Batch Representative.	An Old Boy who is posted as the Principal, Vice Principal or Administrative Officer of the School can become an ex-officio member of the SSKZM OBA EC. He will be active in the OBA functioning during his tenure. But as per the present provision in the Bye Laws, he is not eligible to contest to the post of OBA President, even if they have been in EC for the stipulated time as a Batch Representative. So, to allow the ex-officio members for contesting in the election to the post of President of OBA, even though they have been in OBA EC, for the period prescribed in the bye-laws, this amendment is inevitable. More over there is a dearth in willing eligible candidates for contesting for the Presidential post as per the prevailing condition in the bye laws. So, to maintain a healthy competition to the coveted post of the OBA at present and in future this amendment will be in good stead.
